Notes from the Pastor

In your charity, please pray for the souls of the following who died this past week: Bob Garvin, who I anointed just four hours before he died and also, Joann Statt, receptionist at Holy Family Church and a dear friend. I anointed her at Mount Carmel East at the hour of her death. May they rest in peace.

Last Sunday evening I made a visit to Holy Trinity Church in Somerset where beloved parishioner, Terry Thomas, is buried. She and many of her family are buried there and awaiting the final trumpet. May they rest in peace.

This weekend we will welcome Father Sinoj Pynadath, speaking for the Missionaries in India, Order of the Heralds of Good News. Please be generous. The Missions are a clear sign that the Church is alive!

A very cool event --- the Most Reverend Joseph Perry will speak from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Saturday, August 3, on six Americans who are up for canonization. Interestingly, they are all black American Catholics: Venerable Pierre Toussaint, Venerable Henriette DeLille, Father Augustus Tolton and Mother Mary Lange, Sister Thea Bowman and Julia Greeley. This presentation will be held at the Church of the Resurrection, 6300 E. Dublin-Granville Rd, New Albany, OH.

Mark your calendar for our Ohio Theater Event and bring your friends for Monday, August 5th, Doors open at 5:30 p.m., at 6:30 a program will begin, and at 7:00 a big-screen showing of the Bells of St. Mary's. This event is the final Thank You to all who contributed and supported the restoration of our historic St. Mary Church.

While you are marking your calendar, mark it again for the St. Mary Homecoming Festival. It will take place on August 9 and 10 here on our St. Mary grounds. Come one, come all.

A special thank you to all of you who enriched my 69th birthday with your prayers, cards, gifts, and good wishes. May God reward you all. Getting old!!

The Lord be with you!

Father Kevin F. Lutz

A calm port in a storm

The world has seen its share of disasters, both natural and of human origin: earthquakes, floods, hurricanes, tornadoes, oil spills, and wars, to name a few. People also experience their own personal catastrophes: illnesses, deaths, losses of jobs and homes, the crumbling of families and relationships. Such events can give us some perspective on biblical stories like the one about the sleeping Jesus and his scared-to-death disciples on a storm-tossed boat. It can be hard to trust God—or anyone for that matter—when events threaten to overcome us. It is at those times, though, that trust is most needed. Take some biblical advice. Jesus "rebuked the winds and the sea, and there was great calm." In the face of calamity, the voice of God is not in the sound and fury but in the stillness of your heart.

"Life is a Gift From God. The Church's teaching on the dignity of human life is clear. "Human life" states the Catechism of the Catholic Church, "must be respected and protected absolutely from the moment of conception. From the first moment of his existence, a human being must be recognized as having the rights of a person—among which is the inviolable right of every innocent being to life."

Denver Archbishop Samuel J. Aquila - January 22, 2013
