Notes from the Pastor

Please pray for a ten-year-old child afflicted with cancer. I was called today (Tues) to Children's Hospital to anoint him. I worked at Children's for many years, and the children on the cancer floor are the strongest of all.

A reminder that this coming Saturday, Sept 7th, is the first Saturday of the month; we will have a 9:00 a.m. Latin Mass in honor of Our Lady. At 11:30a.m. I will offer a funeral Mass at Mother of Sorrows Chapel at St. Joseph Cemetery for the soul of Sandi Paniccia.

Congratulations to Bishop James A. Griffin who will be celebrating 60 years as a priest and 40 years as a bishop on Thursday, September 5th.

On Sunday, September 8th, I will be giving a talk for the Catholic Record Society at St. Therese Shrine on Broad Street. In the evening, I will be giving a talk at Otie's Tavern and Grill 5344 Center Street, Hilliard. The title of my talk is, "Why you should fall in love with the 13th century."

Following Communion the ushers will distribute my letter to you addressing important information.

The Lord be with you!

Father Kevin F. Lutz

When the subject of prayer comes up in conversation, someone will inevitably say, "Well, I don't get around to sitting still and praying very often, but I've come to realize that every moment of my day can be a prayer." This is absolutely true, of course. Having a sense of God's presence in every moment of one's day is even more basic to one's relationship with God than any particular type of prayer, such as contemplation. But the problem with that statement is that it implies that I have to choose one or the other: a prayer life (spending exclusive time with God every day) or a prayerful life (acknowledging God's presence in every moment). A person who feels called to contemplative prayer rejects this either-or attitude and chooses both a prayer life and a prayerful life.
