Healing mass ( This Sunday) in Holy Cross Parish

As the gospels relate, the sick came to him for healing; moreover, he loves us so much that he died for our sake. Through the apostle James, he has commanded us: “ are there any who are sick among you? Let them send for the priests of the Church, and the priests pray over them, anointing them with oil in the name of the Lord; and the prayer of the faith will save the sick persons, and the Lord will raise them up: and if they have committed any sins, their sins will be forgiven them”.

Hence we are planning to have healing mass on October, 27 ( SUNDAY Evening) at 4.00 pm in Holy Cross Church. All are invited to participate in the mass and be healed. If you participate in the weekend masses, still you can participate in this special mass. The celebrant is Fr. Joselin Berkman, St. Anthony of Padua, Yulan—NY.

The Newborn – A Christian Model

One day, some mothers present their kids to Jesus so that he may take them in his arms and caress them (Mk 10:13). The disciples, who judge this excessive familiarity an inconvenience, drive them away with rebukes. Jesus reacts: “the Kingdom of God belongs to such as these” (v. 14). The episode is narrated with varying shades of meaning by the three synoptic Gospels. While Mark and Matthew speak of children, Luke says that newborns are presented to Jesus (Lk 18:15).

If children do something lovely, they merit the love of the parents. But the newborns have not begun to do anything at all. They are the image of one who is able to receive freely. Jesus singles out newborns as models of the attitude we should have in front of God. They are directly opposite to the Pharisee who prides himself on all the good he has done.

Jesus says that one cannot enter the Kingdom of God unless s/he becomes like a newborn baby; which is not aware of owing always and all to the one who gave and continues to give it life.

When one thinks of attributing to oneself the good work, s/he could no longer be a newborn and auto-excludes himself/herself from God’s Kingdom. Paul says: “What have you that you have not received? And if you received it, why are you proud, as if you did not receive it?” (1 Cor 4:7).

To internalize the message, we repeat:

“O Lord, you reserved to the small ones the gift of the Kingdom of God.”

Day of obligation

November, 01st is dedicated to all saints, which is also the day of obligation. Hence we will have mass at different times.

Vigil Mass @ Rectory - 7.00 pm ( Thursday )

Morning Mass - St. Patrick's - 8.30 am

Morning Mass - Holy Cross - 11.00 am

All souls day mass

On November 02nd, 2019, Saturday, we will have morning mass in Holy Cross Church. After the mass, at any time, if we visit the cemetery and pray for the souls departed, we shall receive plenary indulgence. Hence its highly recommended that we as Catholics, visit the cemetery one of these days and pray for them.

Eucharistic celebration

The Eucharistic Sacrifice, the memorial of the death and resurrection of the Lord, in which the Sacrifice of the cross is forever perpetuated, is the summit and the source of all worship and Christian life.

We have Eucharistic celebration during the weekdays. Feel free to look in to the bulletin for the timings of celebrations and make your time available for Him.

He is the doctor of our soul and body and He is our refuge. Let us foster our faith with His word and with the Holy Eucharist by frequent participation, at least whenever possible for us...

With peace & Love

Fr. Joseph Raj MMI & Dn. John Lyttle
