Prayer for the Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit

God the Father, grant us,

The Spirit of Wisdom

that I may despise the perishable things of this world and aspire only after the things that are eternal,

The Spirit of Understanding

to enlighten my mind with the light of Thy divine truth,

The Spirit of Counsel

that I may ever choose the surest way of pleasing God and gaining Heaven,

The Spirit of Fortitude

that I may bear my cross with Thee, and that I may overcome with courage all the obstacles that oppose my salvation,

The Spirit of Knowledge

that I may know God and know myself and grow perfect in the science of the Saints,

The Spirit of Piety

that I may find the service of God sweet and amiable,

The Spirit of Fear

that I may be filled with a loving reverence towards God, and may dread in any way to displease Him. Amen.

LITURGY OF WORD

First Reading: Acts 2:1-11

Second Reading: 1 Cor 12:3b-7,12-13

Gospel Reading: John 20:19 -23

Today, all across the world in our Christian churches, we celebrate Pentecost Sunday. It is 50 days since the resurrection of Jesus. “Pente” is the Greek word for five, and “Pentecost” means fifty. Something wonderful happened on this day when the Holy Spirit descended on the disciples of Jesus gathered together in Jerusalem. The Holy Spirit came upon them in a powerful, awesome, dramatic way equipping them to testify, to witness, to their faith in Jesus Christ. The disciples were destined to spread the word of Jesus into all the world. And on this Pentecost day in Jerusalem, people from countries and nations outside Israel were gathered.

The Pentecost festival specifically fell on the fiftieth day after Passover because it celebrated Moses receiving the Ten Commandments 50 days after leaving Egypt with the great Israelite Exodus. The Jewish Pentecost festival celebrated the receiving of God’s Word and God’s laws. Is it any wonder that God chose to reveal God’s new Word and new “laws” in Jesus at this particular Pentecost festival 50 days after the resurrection of Jesus?

On this Pentecost day in Jerusalem, the Holy Spirit came to the Christian apostles and believers in a very special way. It was one of the supremely great days for the Christian Church. The disciples had an experience of the power of the Spirit flooding their beings such as they never had happen before. The Holy Spirit manifested itself in such a momentous way that the disciples received the power to go out and deliver the message of the gospel of Jesus Christ into the whole world.
