CORPUS CHRISTI SUNDAY

“This
is
MY BODY

This
is
MY BLOOD of the Covenant”

“...that by the consecration of the bread and wine there takes place a change of the whole substance of the bread into the substance of the body of Christ our Lord and of the whole substance of the wine into the substance of his blood. This change the holy Catholic Church has fittingly and properly called transubstantiation.” (cf. CCC 1376).

Let us all Stay Safe, Clean & Healthy

THE OBLIGATION TO ATTEND SUNDAY MASS IS SUSPENDED UNTIL FURTHER NOTICE

PREVENTION RECOMMENDATIONS

Those who are at a higher risk for COVID-19 (i.e., those who are older than 65 or who have underlying health conditions) are urged not to come to church for Mass.

Those who feel in any way sick or who are worried about attending Mass should not enter the church.

In accordance with current state policy, the faithful (over 2 years old) must wear cloth face coverings when in public, including when they come to church.

Attendees should sanitize their hands at the entrance of the church via sanitizer stations.

All present at Mass should sit 6 feet or more away from others. Families may sit together.

Those who cannot attend Mass may be encouraged to spend time daily reading the Scriptures, praying with their families, watching a broadcast or livestreamed Mass, and making an act of spiritual communion.

LITURGY OF WORD

First Reading: Dt 8:2-3, 14b-16a

Second Reading: 1 Cor 10:16-17

Gospel Reading: John 6:51-58

In the first reading, Dt 8:2-3, 14b-16a, Moses instructs the Israelites to “remember and not forget” the miraculous provision of food in the manna given to them to save their lives in the desert. The Church, through the Holy Mass, remembers and re-presents the Sacramental meal (Last Supper) and Jesus' sacrifice on Calvary sealed by the Father as acceptable by granting him Resurrection. In the second reading, Paul reminds the Corinthians that the Bread they share is the real Body of Christ, which makes their community also the Body of the risen Christ. In today's Gospel passage, Jesus identifies himself as “the Living Bread that came down from Heaven,” thus linking himself with the manna in the wilderness, while assuring his disciples that, unlike those who ate manna, “One who eats this Bread will live forever.”
