11.00 am —Holy Cross Church

During month of November, we are called in a special way to remember and pray for our brothers and sisters who have fallen asleep in the hope of resurrection. So, we are invited to pray and offer Mass for our departed brethren

Being Happy & Contented

Greed takes away contentment. The “I want more, I want more” tendency makes you miserable by making you obsess over it! When you think whatever is required for you, eventually you will get it. You are not disturbed by greed. You should have the faith that it will come to you. So not wanting too much of anything is essential to maintain the balance!

Happiness and contentment come, the only thing you have to ensure is:

You are not lazy. When you are lazy and say, “Let happiness come to me”, it is not going to come to you.

Don't be selfish. When you are selfish, happiness is tough to come by. Saying, “Me, mine, only me” is not going to bring happiness.

Don't be greedy. A greedy one will not be happy. If you are greedy and say, “I want more and more and more”, you will not be happy.

People with a feeling of revenge will not be happy. If you want to take revenge on anybody, then you cannot be happy.

LITURGY OF WORD

First Reading: Rev 7: 2-4, 9-14

Second Reading: 1John 3:1-3

Gospel Reading: Matt 5: 1-12

All baptized Christians who have died and are now with God in glory are considered saints. All Saints Day is intended to honor the memory of countless unknown and uncanonized saints who have no feast days.

Today we thank God for giving ordinary men and women a share in His holiness and Heavenly glory as a reward for their Faith. This feast is observed to teach us to honor the saints, both by imitating their lives and by seeking their intercession for us before Christ, the only mediator between God and man (I Tm 2:5). The Church reminds us today that God's call for holiness is universal, that all of us are called to live in His love and to make His love real in the lives of those around us. Holiness is related to the word wholesomeness. We grow in holiness when we live wholesome lives of integrity, truth, justice, charity, mercy, and compassion, sharing our blessings with others.

Being Living Signs of Love

Jesus' whole life was a witness to his Father's love, and Jesus calls his followers to carry on that witness in his Name. We, as followers of Jesus, are sent into this world to be visible signs of God's unconditional love. Thus, we are judged not first of all by what we say but by what we live. When people say of us, “See how they love one another, “they catch a glimpse of the Kingdom of God that Jesus announced and are drawn to it as by a magnet.

In a world so torn apart by rivalry, anger, hatred, pain and suffering, we have the privileged vocation to be living signs of a Love that can bridge all divisions and heal all wounds.

“If you can't feed a hundred people, feed just one.” – St. Mother Teresa of Kolkata

“To be Saints is not a privilege for the few, but a vocation for everyone.”—Pope Francis
