Saint Blase was a bishop of Sebaste in Armenia in the fourth century. Before being martyred, he is said to have healed a boy who was choking. Since the eighth century, Saint Blase has been venerated as the patron of those who suffer from diseases of the throat. We pray in a special way today for protection from afflictions of the throat and from other illnesses. In the United States the annual blessing of throats is a traditional sign of the struggle against illness in the life of the Christian. This blessing will be given after each Mass on Feb.3rd & 4th
