Pastor's Report

Fr. David provided an update on Kevin, the new Director of Discipleship and his family. They have been offered a temporary place to reside in Cable WI and have put in an offer on a home in the city of Hayward. He also reported that Totus Tuus and Extreme Faith Camp in Rhinelander went well. As did Hayward's programs according to Sarah Halberg.

Old Business

Security Cameras: Deacon Dave has received the sample camera and plans to set it up ASAP for a test run.

Internet: Karen Minke has been busy, but still intends to look into the internet options.

Parking Lot: Parking lot has been completed and is back in use.

Empty Lot: Fill has been spread.

Roof: Ben Kozak reported, a quote for a rubber type coating is in the works and could potentially extend the life of the roof 20 years as opposed to replacement. Options will be discussed.

New Business

Bean Timmerman reported that the Holy Spirit sculpture is complete and will be installed on Wednesday July 13th 2021.

Sarah Halberg brought up the dangers of falls from ladders and scaffolding while banners are being replaced seasonally. A discussion ensued where various options were suggested by council members. Fr. David plans to speak to Michalene about the options discussed.

Divine Renovation:

Discussion of a portion of Chapter 7 took place.

Agenda Items for Next Month
