04/15/20 BISHOP BELLISARIO'S LETTER SUMMARY

Please visit OLA's website at kenaicatholicchurch.org or www.archdioceseofanchorage.org for our Bishop's full letter.

- ✚ Temporary social distancing and staying home, together with restrictions on gathering and travel, are the best way for us to protect human life during this global pandemic.
- ✚ The right to life is first among all of the human rights. I want to thank each of you for all of the sacrifices that you make to ensure that this virus will affect far fewer people—thereby protecting human life.
- ✚ Be grateful for the opportunity to attack this virus head on, and to discover new ways to remain united in the Spirit and prayer during this temporary separation.
- ✚ In every situation it is possible to have the “attitude of gratitude.”
- ✚ I am deeply grateful for all of the doctors and nurses, healthcare providers, first responders, essential workers, and government officials.
- ✚ The May issue of the (Catholic) Anchor focuses upon the many creative efforts and ministry of our priests, deacons, teachers, directors of faith formation and youth ministry, and associates of Catholic Social Services, among many others. I am deeply grateful for them.
- ✚ I want to commend Catholic Social Services and all those charities that continue to minister, treat, and care for our cherished brothers and sisters who suffer from homelessness, addiction and health challenges.
- ✚ Please continue to follow the mandates from our civil authorities as well as my own directives. These temporary measures are in place for the common good.
- ✚ We will gather again as soon as it is safe to do so. And, it will be with lessons learned, new innovations created, and a deeper love and appreciation for each other.

PRAYER OF SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

“My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen.”

3 P.M. DAILY PRAYER

* The prayer to the Blessed Virgin Mary *
“O Mary, conceived without sin, pray for us who have recourse to thee.”
