This weekend as we celebrated the Independence of our country, we will do well to echo the Psalmist, saying, "Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy." May we always recognize and use wisely the gifts of freedom and abundance He has showered upon us.

WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY WITH MARY

The Tuesday morning Bible Study begins a new series this Tuesday with Mary: A Biblical Walk with the Blessed Mother, an extraordinary study that reveals Mary's unique role in God's Kingdom and in our lives. You will learn how she works in our lives today, drawing us ever closer to her divine Son. All ladies of the parish are invited.

"When life and family are not treasured and preserved in a society, collapse on all fronts is inevitable."

Fr. Richard Welch, CSSR, JCD, President of Human Life International

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS:

EZ 2: 2-5; PS 123: 1-4; 2 COR 12: 7-9; MK 6: 1-6

The First Reading from the prophet Ezekiel tells of how Ezekiel was called by God. The Lord speaks to him and says, "Hard of face and obstinate of heart are they to whom I am sending you." God knew He was not giving Ezekiel an easy task, but that is part of what being called by the Lord sometimes involves.

Being called is something to which we often make reference, as each of us is called in Baptism. St. Paul once wrote that we are "called to belong to Jesus Christ." The United States Bishops issued a document a few years ago titled Disciples Called to Witness. That is what we are all to do as baptized Catholics.

In that treatise the Bishops say, "To create a culture of witness, we must live explicit lives of discipleship. Being a disciple is a challenge. Fortunately, one does not become a disciple of Christ on his or her own initiative. The work of the Holy Spirit within the Christian community forms the person as a disciple of Christ."

God does not forsake us when we are called, just as He did not abandon Ezekiel. He is with us through the Holy Spirit to strengthen us and assist us. We must allow the Lord to help us. At the same time, we must strive to be disciples of the Lord. We are called to spread the light of the Gospel in everything we do.

Don't want to go on vacation with your spouse? Miss the joy of happy family gatherings? Are you just "going through the motions" but not really connected as a couple anymore? If so, there is help. Retrouvaille (pronounced retro-vi with a long i) means "rediscovery" and offers the chance to rediscover yourself, your spouse, and a loving relationship in your marriage. Tens of thousands of couples headed for divorce have successfully saved their marriages by attending the weekend and follow-up sessions. Retrouvaille is a not spiritual retreat, sensitivity group, seminar, or social gathering. To learn more about the program or to register for the August 3 - 5 weekend and follow-up post-weekend sessions in Indianapolis, visit the website at www.HelpOurMarriage.com or www.retrouvaille.org. THE STORY TAKES JULY BREAK

The Bible as one continuing story of God and his people will continue in August on each Tuesday, at 6:30pm at Grace United Methodist Church.

SUMMER FAITH READING

Our Catholic Book Club selection for summer reading is Having a Mary Heart in a Martha World, by Joanna Weaver, a pastor's wife, mother of two and an author. We are all familiar with the Biblical story of Martha and Mary, Luke 10:38-42, and this book takes us a little deeper into the conflict we feel as women when "we want to worship like Mary, but the Martha inside keeps bossing us around." ISBN 1-57856-258-9 publishes by Waterbrook Press.

Another highly recommended book for anyone is When Divorce is Not an Option, "How to Heal Your Marriage and Nurture Lasting Love," by Greg Popcak, an expert on the practical applications of Pope John Paul the Great's Theology of the Body.

And, one more! JOSEPH, The Man Who Raised Jesus by Father Gary Caster, ordained in 1992, of the Diocese of Peoria, Illinois. "Let Fr. Gary Caster introduce you to the man who risked everything to care for Mary and her Son, safeguarding them from harm and cherishing them with a pure and true love. Joseph was a flesh-and-blood testimony of what it means to live according to the Father's will with one's mind and heart centered on Christ."

Purchase your book online through Amazon or any source carrying Christian books. If you need assistance, please contact Susan by text or voice at 512-627-6863 or by email: susanlannoy4@gmail.com. Or contact the office. Enjoy your summer!
