SUNDAY CONNECTION:

Renewed by the Love of Christ

written by Douglas Sousa, S.T.L.

How does Jesus make all things new? Jesus tells us that all he has taught can be summed up in one commandment, "Love one another." The love that Jesus commands is no warm feeling of affection expressing itself in hugs and kisses. Rather, he commands them to love one another as he has loved them — by dying on the cross. Jesus is the only hope of renewal for us individually, for the Church, and for the world.

PRAY THE ROSARY

May is the month of Mary, our Heavenly Mother. As we celebrate Mother's Day this month, let us also honor Mary with prayer and adoration through the rosary. As you pray the rosary, offer prayers for mothers to love their children the way God loves them, the way their kids deserve, and the way they want to love their children.

FIRST HOLY COMMUNION

JT Davis of St. Mary's will receive Jesus through First Holy Communion this Sunday. Congratulations to JT and please keep him in your thoughts and prayers as he receives this Sacrament and continues to grow in his Catholic faith.

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS:

ACTS 13:14, 43-52; PS 100: 1-3,5; REV 7:9, 14B-17; JN 10:27-30

Today's readings on this fifth Sunday of Easter contain inspiring but challenging messages for us as Christian stewards.

The Gospel from John includes this well-known verse: "My children... I give you a new commandment: love one another. As I have loved you, so you also should love one another."

What a succinct description of a stewardship way of life. It sounds so simple. But simple does not necessarily mean easy.

How exactly is Jesus Calling us to love? As He Himself loved. Jesus loved (and loves) by serving us and by making a sacrifice of His very life for us. That is a tall order.

Living a life of service and self-sacrifice is not easy because it requires us to continuously fight against our selfish inclinations. But the more we empty ourselves of "self" by serving others, the more room we make in our hearts for God pour His grace into us.

As we face the hardships that come with living as Christian stewards, we can continue to rejoice in the wonder of the Resurrection this Easter season, finding great joy in following in our Lord's own footsteps and in loving as He loves.
