

You prepare a table for me, O Lord

CELEBRATE THE LORD'S DAY MASSES:

(While we are all not able to gather in church as a faith community to receive Jesus present in the Eucharist, Fr. Paul does continue to offer the sacrifice of the Mass each day for our intentions as listed below. At minimum for the Sunday obligation, We can participate in Mass through many forms: Online live streaming, on our website with Bishop Barron, EWTN, Catholic Radio of Indy (89.1 or 90.9) our Word Among Us books have daily Mass readings, or the following:

SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

PRAYER INTENTIONS OF POPE FRANCIS

FOR JUNE:

The Way of the Heart

We pray that all those who suffer may find their way in life, allowing themselves to be touched by the Heart of Jesus.

Weekly Prayer Corner:

LEAD ME, LORD

Assist me, Jesus, for I desire to become good whatsoever it may cost. Take away, destroy, utterly root out all that you find in me contrary to your holy will. Enlighten me that I may be able to walk in your holy light.

--St. Gemma Galgani

WEEKDAY MASS has resumed...on limited schedule. We will have one weekday Mass at each location as an easy back in. Wednesday will be at noon at St. John's and Thursday will be at 5:30pm at St. Mary's. All weekend Mass guidelines remain in place for these two Masses. (There are intentions listed in the schedule for Tuesday and Friday as Fr. Paul continues to offer Mass, but not for public participation yet.)

RECEIVE THE SACRAMENT OF RECONCILIATION

Next Saturday, July 4th, 4pm.

We have entered Phase C of the Bishop's reopening plan. Confessions are now returned to their normal scheduling of the first and third Saturdays at St. John's at 4pm. However, they too will look a little different:

- Fr. Paul will be stationed in the hallway behind the altar with a screen in the doorway and a chair for the person to sit.
- Those waiting their turn should sit in a pew in the sanctuary until the person ahead is finished.
- Enter the sacristy by the men's restroom.
- Please wear your mask.
- When your turn is finished, please return to sanctuary to signal next person.

Other opportunities will be by appointment.

OFFERING OF SELF

I will do something kind for someone anonymously.

Both the first reading and the Gospel today speak of hospitality and welcome. Our ministers of hospitality are a most visible example of using one's time and talents to welcome the people of God. But the Gospel assures us that all who give even just "a cup of cold water" to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded.

We dedicate the month of June to the Sacred Heart of Jesus.

The Church today, and throughout this month of June, invites us to spend the month reflecting on what it really means to live our lives in such a way that we reveal the Loving Heart of a Merciful God to the whole world. Let us use this month to grow in love and mercy to others as our Loving and Merciful God shows us. The feast takes place on the 19th day after Pentecost, this year on June 19th.

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS:

2 KGS 4:8-11, 14-16A; PS 89:2-3, 16-19; ROM 6:3-4, 8-11; MT 10:37-42

Today's readings take us back to some basics of stewardship living and demonstrate the genius of this way of life.

Our First Reading, from 2 Kings, shows us the necessity and power of hospitality. It recounts the story of a woman who showed loving hospitality to a visitor, inviting him to dinner with her family and arranging a room for him in their home so that he would have a comfortable place to stay during his travels through her town. She reached out to the man in a simple and practical manner to make him feel welcome and was rewarded in an extraordinary way.

In our Second Reading, from the Letter to the Romans, St. Paul reminds us of the power of our Baptism and how this sacrament makes us disciples. What does that mean for us here and now? St. Paul tells us very clearly: "You must think of yourselves as dead to sin and living for God in Christ Jesus." We must live for Christ! Nothing less will do.

Our Lord proclaims this same instruction in a rather shocking way in our Gospel passage from Matthew: "Whoever finds his life [by living for oneself] will lose it, and whoever loses his life for my sake will find it." But how do we lose our life? Precisely through loving actions towards others, loving them as if they were Christ. "Whoever gives only a cup of cold water to one of these little ones to drink because the little one is a disciple... he will surely not lose his reward."

The simple brilliance of stewardship living? Only our infinitely creative, compassionate God could conceive it!
