SPIRITUAL COMMUNION

My Jesus, I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament. I love You above all things, and I desire to receive You into my soul. Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart. I embrace You as if You were already there and unite myself wholly to You. Never permit me to be separated from You. Amen

St. Augustine once wrote that "We cannot love unless someone has loved us first. Listen to the apostle John: We love him, because he first loved us. The source of man's love for God can only be found in the fact that God loved him first." Knowing that we have been loved into existence is one of the key hallmarks of the Easter message that spread like wildfire after the Resurrection, and it still brings people to Jesus and His Church this day. When we gather to participate and offer the sacrifice of the Mass it is a feast of love, what was called agape in the ancient days, and which originally confused non-Christians in the early days of the Church. But to this day, we are being drawn more deeply into this liturgy of God's love for us and our love for Him.

These past weeks I have received a lot of feedback on our new vigil Mass for our pastorate, and I am very thankful for all of it. We will have these next few months to get this Mass started and established, and I look forward to the great fruits that will come from it for our parishes and our communities. We will start this new schedule on Saturday May 1st, with Mass remaining at St. Mary's at 5pm and Mass at St. John's at 6:30pm. I look forward to this opportunity to offer this sacrifice and welcome back any of our parishioners who have been away these past few months and any new parishioners as well. Please continue to invite friends and family members to any of our Masses here, as we continue to receive and share God's love and mercy with all those we are called to serve.

In Christ, Fr. Hurley

PRAYER INTENTIONS OF POPE FRANCIS FOR APRIL:

Fundamental Rights
We pray for those who risk their lives while fighting for fundamental rights under dictatorships, authoritarian regimes and even in democracies in crisis.

World Day of Prayer for Vocations

Every year on Good Shepherd Sunday, which is today, we take time to pray for an increase in vocations - especially to the religious life - and for those who have entered formation.

- Pray for the priests who have ministered to you throughout your life, both living and dead.
- Keep our parish priests and deacons in prayer throughout the week.
- Encourage your children or grandchildren to consider a vocation as a priest or religious brother or sister.
- Pray a rosary for more young men and women in our diocese to respond to God's call.

God our Father, we thank you for calling men and women to serve in your Son's kingdom as priests, deacons, and consecrated persons. Send your Holy Spirit to help others to respond generously and courageously to your call. May our community of faith support vocations of sacrificial love in our youth and young adults. Through our Lord Jesus Christ, who lives and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, forever and ever. Amen.

GOSPEL REFLECTIONS:

ACTS 4:8-12; PS 118:1, 8-9, 21-23, 26, 28, 29; 1 JN 3:1-2; JN 10:11-18

On this fourth Sunday of Easter, we hear that Jesus is the Good Shepherd and we are His sheep. Our readings today call us to reflect inward — do we allow Jesus to shepherd our lives?

In our Gospel Jesus reveals His radical love for us. He says, “I will lay down my life for the sheep.” Jesus tells us that we are His. We can compare this relationship to that of a loving parent to their child. The parent gives without much in return and if any evil came near the child, the parent would do anything, even lay down their life for their baby.

We are Christ’s, even more than a child is to a parent. He created us and sustains our lives each day. Evil persists in our world, so Jesus willingly laid down His life for us at Calvary for our salvation. He is our Good Shepherd, whether we remain in His flock or go astray.

But just as a baby is happiest in the arms of a parent, so too are we happiest in the flock of our Shepherd. And just as sheep go astray, we also stray from God, test our limits and even follow false shepherds.

Thankfully our Shepherd is a Good Shepherd, and He laid down His life for us knowing every sin we will ever commit. Therefore, let us examine our hearts and return to our flock. We don’t even need to find the way. He is right there always waiting to guide us home.

Let us look inward this week and ask ourselves, ‘who is my Shepherd?’ and ‘have I gone astray?’ Name the areas in your life that you have neglected. Ask Jesus to bring you home. Pray for His mercy, seek His forgiveness in the sacraments and begin again.
