Volunteers needed to take new potential families through the school Answering questions and explaining how wonderful a facility we have and how great it would be to have them join our school family.

Consignment Shop-Shop opens during events throughout the year.

Families can purchase gently used uniform items. Volunteers are asked to set up and run the shop, collect money from purchases, maintain inventory.

Volunteering is an amazing way to give back to your school and meet other parents. It gives us all an opportunity to make it FUN for the kids! We love them and want to give them what is best- fond memories and family quality time! Please Find some events that you think would be FUN to help with...no amount of time is too big or too small.

Thank you!

Sincerely, your HSA board
