Gatherings of great crowds have become commonplace in our everyday life. So much so that we sometimes fail to take note of them. 40,000 people gather on a Saturday afternoon for a baseball game, 19,000 come together for a basketball or hockey game. Over 50,000 individuals ran in the 2017 LA Marathon. They gather either as a participant or as a spectator but in 2-3 hours the event is over and they return to their regular routine, waiting for the next big event.

Mark writes that “People of the whole Judean countryside and all of Jerusalem were going out to see John. They were being baptized by him in the Jordan as they acknowledged their sins” (Mk 1:5). Can you imagine what this would look like in the year 29 AD? A constant movement of people from the towns and villages going out to see a man dressed in camel’s hair and eating locusts. As strange as this image is it was a life changing event for the people of Judea and Jerusalem. These great crowds were drawn to John and his preaching but he in turn directed them to “One among you mightier than I” (Mk 1:7)

Pope Francis writes in his apostolic exhortation The Joy of the Gospel “In all the baptized, from first to last, the sanctifying power of the Spirit is at work, impelling us to evangelization” (119). “In virtue of their baptism, all members of the People of God have become missionary disciples (120).

In 2017, we will celebrate over 120 baptisms in English and Spanish. It is easy to estimate that over 2000 individuals will witness these baptisms at St Joseph. What a great way to evangelize. Bringing children to the sacrament of Baptism is made possible by the examples of our parents, extended family and others who have evangelized through theirs words and action. This can be a life changing event for these children and their families.

As we prepare ourselves in this Advent Season let us remember Isaiah’s urgings to “Prepare the way of the Lord and to make straight his paths” (Is 40:3). Do you see yourselves as missionary disciples? What will we do to prepare this year differently than in years past? How can this preparation change our lives and the lives of those we meet? Can we say as Isaiah did “Here I am, Send me” (Is 6:8)

NEWS OF COMFORT

In a time of preparation, much of it having to do with material things, it is good to hear the words of Isaiah, “Comfort, give comfort to my people, / says your God” (Isaiah 40:1). In a time of such stress and rush, when our usual burdens are augmented by piles of Christmas preparations, we can choose to slow down, take some time to heal, and appreciate the enormous gift we are about to receive. Christ, the Son of God, has become one of us, and knows our human limitations. Yet God, even now, is freeing us from the burdens that our inattentiveness to our God and to our deepest inner longings have heaped upon us. The Lord comes, not as a king with mighty armies, but as a shepherd leading the flocks with care and tenderness. Isaiah prophesies good news: our oppression is over, our sins forgiven. The savior we have awaited is coming, not the first time, but in the end times, as our salvation.

This is a unique Christ-centered support group that is offered at St. Joseph’s Church to help those individuals who are mourning the death of a loved one. This support group meets on Thursdays. The facilitators of this group would love some helpers to join in. If you feel called to compassionately accompany people through this season of loss in their lives, contact Kathleen Li, let’s talk about how you might get involved!

St. Joseph Council 10287
Family of the Month
December 2017

Dennis and Karen Laiola & Family

Program Purpose: As Knights of Columbus, we have always been interested in the development of strong, vibrant families. In support of this philosophy and to create an even greater awareness of our many fine Catholic families, the Supreme Council instituted the “Family of the Month” Program in 1978. Since that time the “Family of the Month” Program has grown to be one of the Order’s most successful. St. Joseph Council 10287 has started the Program to recognize and honor some of the outstanding Catholic Families in our St. Joseph Parish. At the beginning of each month, the Knights of Columbus will select a Family of the Month and present to them a statue of the Holy Family to take home and display in their homes for that month.

St. Joseph Council 10287 has selected Dennis and Karen Laiola, along with their daughter Gianna, as “Family of the Month” for December 2017. This is in recognition for their faithful service and many contributions to St. Joseph Parish. Dennis and Karen have raised three children and been a part of our parish since 1983. They co-chaired the Christ Cathedral Capital Campaign, were on the School and Church Finance Committees and are involved in St. Vincent de Paul. Karen has also been a school volunteer librarian. The Laiola Family leads by example, attending Mass weekly and actively participating at the Mass.
INTERCESSORY PRAYER GROUP

We invite you to join our monthly group in offering prayers on behalf of St. Joseph Parish, that we would live out our Parish Mission Statement to "center our lives on Jesus Christ" and to "grow as disciples of the Lord in faith and action." The Intercessory Prayer Group will meet again on:

Saturday, December 16 at 10:00 AM in Parish Center Rooms 1 & 2

For more information please contact Kathleen Li at 714-528-1487 x 211, or kli@stjosephplacentia.org

Q. Where do our RCIA candidates and catechumens go when they are dismissed after the homily?

A. The catechist for that Sunday leads these members of our community to a room prepared for faith-sharing of the Sunday readings. This time is an extension of the Sunday liturgy, and the participants maintain an attitude of prayer. This Sunday gathering is different from the catechesis that take place in a more structured and formal learning environment.

SUNDAY DONUTS

With so many activities and busy schedules for the parish — there will not be coffee and donuts after morning Masses during December.

Back in the New Year – our gracious continuing volunteers need support.

Please consider this on your New Year resolution list!!

The responsibility is only one Sunday a month.

Las reuniones de grandes multitudes se han convertido en algo común en nuestra vida diaria. Tanto es así que a veces no tomamos nota de ellos. 40,000 personas se reúnen en un sábado por la tarde para un partido de béisbol, 19,000 se unen para un partido de baloncesto o hockey. Más de 50,000 individuos corrieron en el maratón del 2017 en Los Ángeles. Se reúnen ya sea como participante o como espectador pero en 2-3 horas el evento ha terminado y vuelven a su rutina regular, esperando el próximo gran evento.

Marcos escribe que "la gente de todo el campo de Judea y todo Jerusalén iban a ver a Juan." Ellos estaban siendo bautizados por él en el Jordán como ellos reconocieron sus pecados "(MK 1:5)."
¿te imaginas cómo se vería esto en el anuncio del año 29? Un movimiento constante de la gente de las ciudades y de los pueblos saliendo a ver a un hombre vestido con el pelo de camello y co-mienando langostas. Tan extraño como esta imagen es que era un acontecimiento que cambiaba la vida para la gente de Judea y de Jerusalén. Estas grandes multitudes fueron atraídas a Juan y su predicación, pero a su vez los dirigió a "uno entre vosotros más poderoso que yo" (MK 1:7)

El Papa Francis escribe en su exhortación apostólica la alegría del Evangelio "en todos los bautiza-dos, de primera a última, el poder santificador del espíritu está en el trabajo, impulsando la evangelización" (119). "en virtud de su bautismo, todos los miembros del pueblo de Dios se han convertido en discípulos misioneros (120)."

En 2017, vamos a celebrar más de 120 bautismos en inglés y español. Es fácil estimar que más de 2000 individuos serán testigos de estos bautismos en St Joseph. Qué gran manera de evangelizar.
Traer a los niños al Sacramento del bautismo es posible gracias a los ejemplos de nuestros padres, familia extendida y otros que han evangelizado a través de sus palabras y acción. Esto puede ser un acontecimiento que cambia la vida para estos niños y sus familias

A medida que nos preparamos en esta temporada de Adviento, recordemos las exhortaciones de Isaías a "preparar el camino del Señor y a enderezar sus caminos" (Is 40:3). ¿ustedes se ven como discípulos misioneros? ¿Qué haremos para preparar este año de manera diferente que en años pasados? ¿Cómo puede esta preparación cambiar nuestras vidas y las de los que nos encontramos? Podemos decir como Isaías lo hizo "aquí estoy, mándame" (es 6:8)
NOTICIAS QUE DAN CONSUELO

En un tiempo de preparación, relacionado en gran medida con cosas materiales, es bueno escuchar las palabras de Isaías: “Consuelen, consulen a mi pueblo, dice nuestro Dios” (Isaías 40:1). En un tiempo de tanto nerviosismo y prisa, cuando nuestras cargas habituales se duplican a causa de los miles de preparativos navideños, podemos elegir aminorar la marcha, dedicar un tiempo a curar las heridas y valorar el enorme regalo que estamos por recibir. Cristo, el Hijo de Dios, se ha convertido en uno de nosotros y conoce nuestras limitaciones humanas. Sin embargo, Dios, incluso ahora, nos está librándonos de las cargas que se nos amontonan por no prestarle atención a él ni a nuestros anhelos más profundos. El Señor llega, no como un rey con ejércitos poderosos, sino como un pastor que guía a los rebaños con amor y ternura. Isaías anuncia buenas noticias: nuestra servidumbre terminó, nuestros pecados han sido perdonados. El Salvador que esperábamos está llegando, no por primera vez, sino al final de los tiempos, como nuestra salvación.
