13th Sunday in Ordinary Time
After three very special Sunday’s celebrating Pentecost, the Most Holy Trinity and last weekend the Feast of Corpus Christi, the Church is now on a regular pattern for a while.

With Summer now here, a few hymns /songs will take on a lighter flavor, celebrating creation, the Earth, nature and as in today’s Processional Hymn, the mention of birds, dew, rainfall and wet gardens. It’s actually pretty refreshing to hear such poetry.

The Gospel verse today is summed up by us asking the Lord to speak to us through his word, and assuring him that we are listening and lastly, in agreement that the Lord’s words are indeed words of everlasting life. Our Presentation Hymn contains a perfect, simple message. Give Me Ears to Listen is a desire for us, the people of God, to heed the Lord’s plea to us, that being, for us asking to be his servant and to follow him by walking his way.

The moving refrain pleads Give me ears to listen, give me eyes to see. Give me words to speak and show your face to me. Through the verses to this song, we are following, listening and hopefully receiving inspiring words to share, comfort and to console others.

A new song we introduced in Advent of 2018, which we have now sung for two seasons, is most appropriate for the today’s Gospel.

Jesus Christ, Homeless One contains the words in the second paragraph of Luke’s Gospel reading, “Foxes have dens, birds have a nest, but the Son of God, the homeless one, still has no place to rest.” ~ Raymond Murphy, Music Director

A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE by Bud Ozar

Today's Gospel reminds us once we set our “hand to the plow” of parenting and marriage, “we cannot look back.” This is what commitment means: we have said YES to what was...YES to what is...and YES to what can be.

Religious Freedom Week

Independence Day Prayer

“We hold these truths self-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among these are Life, Liberty and the pursuit of Happiness.”

Let us pray…

O God, You willed that the Jewish people be free from slavery by their Egyptian captors. You will that all people should be free to worship You without fear and to celebrate their religious beliefs freely, even if they have not yet found You.

Grant that those of us who live in this great nation will thank You daily for our freedom, and work for the freedom of others around the world that do not yet have the freedom to practice their faith openly and proudly. We seek Your wisdom where hatred abounds, and ask for humility to offer our good works to others who live in fear and bondage.

We ask all this through Christ our Lord, who frees us from sin and death...through the wood of the cross. ~ Amen.
