October is the month of the Holy Rosary. Our Lady told Blessed Alan de la Roche, "You shall obtain all you ask of me by the recitation of the Rosary." The rosary is prayed immediately following the 10:00 a.m. Sunday Mass. Join us in this powerful prayer, which only takes 15 minutes. Stay a little later or come a little early for the 12:00 p.m. Mass. Rosaries and booklets on how to pray the rosary are available on the table near the elevator. Make the daily rosary a habit. You'll be amazed by the results!

Partners in Charity

Great News! As of August 31st, our parish exceeded our Partners in Charity goal of $28,700. Sacred Heart-St. Catherine's received 87 gifts totaling $30,017. We received a sizable anonymous gift and another generous gift from a former parishioner that put us over the top. A sincere thank you to everyone who donated to this year's campaign. May God bless you for your kindness and generosity.

28th Sunday in Ordinary Time

“Ten lepers met him. They stood at a distance ...” In the ancient world and into the Middle Ages, there was no treatment for leprosy. People thought it was wildly contagious and were suspicious of any skin diseases. Lepers were isolated from civil society. This isolation was upheld by the Mosaic Law. Should there be a healing from leprosy, the former leper was to present himself to a priest to certify the healing. Like Jesus commands, “Show yourselves to the priests.” The person would then undergo a religious rite to be formally reintroduced to society. In other words, a leper got their life back. So why didn’t they come back?

“As they were going they were cleansed. And one of them, realizing he had been healed, returned, glorifying God in a loud voice; and he fell at the feet of Jesus and thanked him.” Of the ten lepers healed by Christ, only one returns with a grateful heart. The others, perhaps, were thankful enough. Perhaps they couldn’t believe their luck, and they hastened to the priests to confirm the healing. They were more than willing to leave their life of rejection and isolation behind. Why take any steps backward, when the way ahead was so attractive? An attitude like this is perhaps understandable, but few would admire it.

How about you? Do you come back? If you’ve ever had the experience of getting what you hoped and prayed for, you know that this can sometimes be easier said than done. When we’ve wanted something badly enough, how easy it can be to focus on the gift rather than the giver. The truth is, God is daily offering us gifts: the gift of our existence, of the created world, of family and friends, of modern conveniences. Even in times of distress, there is always something to be thankful for. This Sunday, give yourself a gratitude check. Count your blessings. Glorify God and thank Him for the gift of your life!
