Love and Live Your Faith

Faith in God is not a passive virtue resting in the background of our lives. Belief and love for God compels us to an active life of serving, sharing, and living our faith daily.

Embrace excellence – All that we do becomes a prayer when we give our employers, communities, neighborhoods and families our best abilities in God's name.

Celebrate the Eucharist – No Catholic life is complete without weekly Mass attendance. Do what is necessary so you can receive Communion.

Become family – Register in your parish and look for ways to get involved in a parish ministry, such as lectoring, ushering, singing, or becoming a Eucharistic minister.

Be joyful – Scripture comforts us with the assurance that God will not rest until we find our way home to Him. Reject earthly worry and live with joy. God is in control.

Forgive often – Learn to practice this critical skill – and to ask for it when needed.

Flee temptation – St. Peter tells us to “escape the corruption in the world caused by evil desires” (2 Peter 1:4). Ask God often to protect you from sin, to give you the wisdom and courage to make good choices.

Listen to God – Be sensitive to the promptings of the Holy Spirit. God will reveal when you've messed up, and rejoice with you when you get it right.

Saint Anselm's Story

Indifferent toward religion as a young man, Anselm became one of the Church's greatest theologians and leaders. He received the title "Father of Scholasticism" for his attempt to analyze and illumine the truths of faith through the aid of reason. He entered the monastery of Bec in Normandy, was elected prior three years later, and 15 years later, was unanimously chosen abbot. Considered an original and independent thinker, Anselm was admired for his patience, gentleness, and teaching skill. Under his leadership, the Abbey of Bec became a monastic school, influential in philosophical and theological studies. During these years, at the community's request, Anselm began publishing his theological works, comparable to those of Saint Augustine. His best-known work is the book Cur Deus Homo ("Why God Became Man"). His care and concern extended to the very poorest people. Opposing the slave trade, Anselm obtained from the national council at Westminster the passage of a resolution prohibiting the sale of human beings.

St. Joseph Parish Festival Meeting

Did you know...100 years ago

This is the 100th anniversary of the U.S. involvement in World War I. The first person from this Bonne Terre area to die in that war was Norman R. Jackson, who attended St. Joseph School. He was inducted into the Marine Corps on April 29, 1917, and sent to France on October 6, 1917. He died due to poisonous gas on April 15, 1918. His final resting place is the Meuse-Argonne American Cemetery in Lorraine, France. His parents are buried in our parish cemetery. The local American Legion, the Jackson-Thomure Post #83, is co-named after him.

Eucharistic Ministers

If you serve as a Eucharistic Minister, please return after Mass to the sacristy to cleanse the vessels, and get ready the wine and hosts for the next day's service. Thank you.
