Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi)

The readings today discuss the covenants that God makes with His people, the most important of which is that of the Holy Eucharist given to us by Jesus Christ. At the Last Supper, Jesus gave the apostles His very body, blood, soul, and divinity. He continues to offer the Eucharist to us so that we might be filled with His Real Presence. We have the blessing as Catholics to approach the throne of grace and to receive Jesus Christ Himself every day at Holy Mass. What a gift! As we journey through this summer, let us be transformed and become whom we receive in this great sacrament. As we celebrate this great solemnity today, let us be grateful for Christ's perfect sacrifice offered for us and remember to share the truth of this great mystery with those we encounter.

We must receive Communion frequently in order to be effective in our efforts of evangelization, spreading the truth, beauty, and goodness of our Catholic faith. Archstl.org/dynamic

Blessing of Graduates

*Eternal God, in your will we find our purpose,
and in your wisdom we find our joy.*

Bless these graduates

*who have completed a course of study
and now begin a new part of their lives.*

*Let them not be troubled about yesterday,
nor anxious about tomorrow,*

*but let them live fully this day which you have made.
Let them use the gifts they have received in their studies*

that they may become a source of inspiration and blessing for the world.

And when each day is ended, give them delight in knowing

*that the good work you have begun in them
shall come to completion in you.*

We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.
