Back to School Prayer

God of all wisdom, you formed humankind in your own likeness and gave us an intellect to help us know you, our Creator, and the world you made. As we begin this new academic year, enlighten the minds of our students with the inquisitiveness that seeks ever greater knowledge and understanding. Give teachers and professors the wisdom needed to guide the intellectual endeavors of those entrusted to them. Help all who fund and support education to recognize the value of discovering more about the world you have created and so draw ever closer to you, our Maker. Amen.

St. Pius X

The papal election of Cardinal Giuseppe Sarto, Patriarch of Venice, followed the death in 1903 of the long-reigning Pope Leo XIII, who had renewed the Church’s engagement with the modern world. In his encyclical

Rerum Novarum, Leo laid the foundations for Catholic social teaching, and he had offered tentative support to the science of modern biblical criticism.

In taking the name Pius X, Sarto indicated a desire to invoke the spirit of the previous pope, Pius IX (1846-1878), who had battled theological liberalism and defended papal authority. Sarto had risen in the Church from humble origins; his father was a postal clerk in Lombardy. He retained an instinct for the “simple faithful” and promoted devotion to the Blessed Mother and frequent communion. He also sponsored the codification of canon law and decreed that the theology of Thomas Aquinas should form the curriculum of seminary education. Pius X died on August 20, 1914. He was canonized in 1954 by Pope Pius XII. Give Us This Day – Blessed Among Us
