Childlike Wonder

“What were you arguing about?” Who is the greatest and most important? As the years go by, we easily see how fleeting fame is. Today, Jesus asks us to become childlike and welcome God. Then we become a reproach to hypocrisy, wickedness, and “getting ahead at all costs.” The change makes us like children. In welcoming Jesus, we welcome the one who sent him, the heavenly Father, and the life-giving spirit. Now there is a childlike wonder – and real importance. Text, Philip J. Sandstrom, STD

Last Sunday was a great festival day. My personal thanks to all (young and old) who worked so hard at games, in kitchen, in booths, in setting up, in cleaning up. A parish picnic is much more than the profits made, it's also the joining of members to work as one. It offers the chance for people who are not Catholic to come on to grounds and get to know us. I'm sure in the name of the parish we thank especially Tom Willette, our festival chairperson. Long before Sunday he was gathering chairpersons in short meetings. His administration and guidance once again was wonderful. My thanks as well for the many advertisers, and donations such as food and services. We will pass on a further report in the future. Blessings. Fr. Steve

The day will conclude with a Mass concelebrated by the Catholic Bishops of Missouri. Please visit <http://www.mocatholic.org/publications/2018-annual-assembly> to learn more details and to register.
