Prayer for Memorial Day

God of power and mercy, you destroy war and put down earthly pride. Banish violence from our midst and wipe away our tears, that we may all deserve to be called your sons and daughters. Keep in your mercy those men and women who have died in the cause of freedom and bring them safely into your kingdom of justice and peace. We ask this though Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Ascension of the Lord

The Ascension of the Lord is transferred to the Seventh Sunday of Easter, June 2, 2019. Thursday, May 30, 2019, is not a Holy Day of Obligation.

Father Pierre-Jean De Smet (1801 – 1873)

Chief Sitting Bull faced Jesuit Father Pierre-Jean De Smet, the only white man allowed to enter his camp of 5,000 Sioux warriors. He said, “I will listen to your good words, Black Robe.” Regarded by Native Americans as “the white man whose tongue does not lie,” the priest had arrived to negotiate a peace treaty between the U.S. government and the Lakota Sioux nation in 1868. It was signed later that year. At age 19, he was inspired by a missionary visiting from the United States. De Smet set sail the following year and joined the Jesuits in Baltimore. He was later ordained in St. Louis in 1827. Ten years later, Father De Smet began his missionary work among Native Americans. His cheerful disposition, child-like trust in God and intrepid spirit won him numerous friends, as well as converts, and made him a celebrated peacemaker among warring tribes. The U.S. government repeatedly sought Father De Smet’s aid as a mediator with the Native Americans. He wrote, “My heart, I admit, is ever with the Indians.” Until his death in St. Louis on May 23, 1873, he tirelessly sought to build the bonds of peace.

Parish Council Nominations 2019

We need to select eight new members for a three-year term on the Parish Councils at both St. Joseph and St. Anne Parishes to replace the 8 outgoing members. Pray about it and supply suggestions for a new council. If you served previously on the council, you may run again. We will contact those that are nominated and inquire whether they can serve. If the nominated accept, we will request that they supply a short vitae of their time either at St. Joseph or St. Anne. Registered adults in the parish will then be asked to cast a vote. The council meets four times a year, Sept, Dec, Feb, and May,

Please fill out the Parish Council ballots with your nominees and drop them in the collection basket or submit them to the Rectory Office.
