Dynamic Catholic, Alive!

Just like Martha in today's Gospel, aren't we all "anxious and worried about many things"? Why? Martha was upset because she made the decision to take on the more laborious part of providing good hospitality and that was serving the meal. Her sister made the decision to take on the other important part of hospitality and that was spending time with their guest, Jesus. This would be a wonderful week to take time to reflect on these questions: Am I worried and anxious? Am I thinking ahead to the future instead of living in and enjoying the present moment? Has the consequences of one of my decisions caused this worry? Am I spending so much time worrying that I don't focus on having an attitude of gratitude for all the gifts God has given me? Am I spending enough time in prayer so that I can surrender all my worries to Jesus? After reflecting we can pray, "Jesus, I surrender my entire self to You, please take care of everything. Amen" archstl.org/dynamic

St. Anne Church

Church Cleaning Team - #4 – Jane Schmidt

Saints Anne & Joachim

Each year the Church venerates the memory of Saints Anne & Joachim on July 26th. An ancient story dating to the first centuries of the Church's life recalls how Saints Anne & Joachim, like Abraham and Sarah, were scorned by their neighbors because they had no children. Years of longing did not weaken their trust in God, but grief eventually drove Saint Joachim into the wilderness to fast and pray. Saint Anne, remaining at home, dressed in mourning clothes and wept because she had no child of her own. Seeing her mistress distressed, a servant girl reminded Anne to put her trust in God. Saint Anne washed her face, put on her bridal clothes and went to a garden to plead with God for a child. Angels appeared to Saint Anne in her garden and Saint Joachim in the desert, promising that, despite their old age, they would give birth to a child who would be known throughout the world. The new parents ran to meet one another at Jerusalem's Golden Gate, and with a kiss rejoiced in the new life which God had promised would be theirs. Saints Anne and Joachim are powerful intercessors for all married couples, expectant mothers and married couples who are having difficulty conceiving, as well as all who have grown old. U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

Archdiocese of St. Louis Office of the Archbishop

We must all be deeply saddened by the devastation our brothers and sisters living along flooded rivers in our community are realizing, now that the near all-time historic high waters are receding. After an initial assessment, several hundred households mostly in St. Charles and Lincoln Counties have been affected with major damage or a complete loss. I ask the Lord to carry those who are suffering and who have lost so much. To help provide immediate and long-term aid to those impacted by this most recent natural disaster, I am asking our nearly 200 parishes in 11 counties to participate in a second collection at all Masses this weekend or the weekend after (July 13-14 or July 20-21). Funds raised will go directly to relief efforts provided by Catholic Charities of St. Louis and Sts. Joachim and Ann Care Service. Donations can also be made directly to Catholic Charities of St. Louis via mail at P.O. Box 952393, St. Louis, MO 63195-2393 (please note Disaster Relief Fund) or online at www.ccstl.org/donate (select Disaster Relief Fund in the giving menu). Donations can be made directly to Sts. Joachim and Ann Care Service via mail at 4116 McClay Road St. Charles, MO 63304 (please note Flood Recovery) or online at <https://donorbox.org/jacares-donation> (select Flood Recovery in the giving menu). I will be offering Mass for those who have been impacted in this natural disaster. I ask you to please join your prayers to mine for our neighbors who must now rebuild their lives.

*Sincerely yours in Christ,
Most Reverend Robert J. Carlson
Archbishop of St. Louis*

We will have this special collection for the flood victims this weekend. Please use butterfly envelopes

When you find yourself in the position to help someone, be happy and feel blessed because God is answering that person's prayer through you. Remember: Our purpose on earth is not to get lost in the dark but to be a light to others, so that they may find their way through us. Alberto Casing
