Influenza Precautions

In light of the increase in cases of colds and the flu over the past several weeks and since the World Health Organization declared a global public health emergency on Thursday, January 30, 2020, over the outbreak of the Coronavirus, we caution parishioners to limit or even temporarily suspend or modify (i.e., bowing at the Sign of Peace) ritual actions such as handshaking, kissing, or other close proximity during Mass. Parishioners are encouraged to remain at home if ill or they suspect they may have any of the symptoms of the flu. archstl.org

Stewardship Thoughts

"Beginning to pray before you completely understand prayer is the best way to learn because actually praying is better than acquiring knowledge about prayer by reading about it. No one learns to swim by talking about it or watching others." Dan Burke

- "Once all of our past is remembered in gratitude, the good and the bad, we are free to be sent into the world to proclaim the good news to others." Henri Nouwen
- "Our human relationships are a reflection of our relationship with God." Matthew Kelly
- "God loves us just as we are, but he loves us too much to leave us that way." Scott Hahn
- "Christ's works testified to what he was; our works will testify to what we are." Fr. Emil Kapaun
- "Silence, for our spiritual life, is like the space inside the body of a violin; it is what allows the music to resonate." Fr. John Bartunek
- "Happiness does not depend on accumulating more things, but on the mindset we have concerning the things we already have." Ven. Archbishop Fulton Sheen

Dynamic Catholic, Alive! –

Jesus speaks powerful words for us in the Gospel, proclaiming that we are the light of the world and the salt of the earth. This means that we have been blessed in extraordinary ways. God has given all of us gifts that we must use and develop for the sake of evangelization and sharing the joy of the Gospel. We are precious in the eyes of Christ, who has commissioned us to share our gifts with the world not for our own self-interest but for the interest of God and the benefit of our brothers and sisters. Let us not be ashamed of or seek to hide our gifts. Let us let our light shine before others that they may encounter Christ anew. By works of mercy and charity, let us bring Christ to each soul we meet on this pilgrimage of life. archstl.org/dynamic

The Story of Our Lady of Lourdes

On December 8, 1854, Pope Pius IX proclaimed the dogma of the Immaculate Conception in the apostolic constitution Ineffabilis Deus. A little more than three years later, on February 11, 1858, a young lady appeared to Bernadette Soubirous. This began a series of visions. During the apparition on March 25, the lady identified herself with the words: "I am the Immaculate Conception." During interrogations Bernadette gave an account of what she saw. It was "something white in the shape of a girl." She used the word aquero, a dialect term meaning "this thing." It was "a pretty young girl with a rosary over her arm." Her white robe was encircled by a blue girdle. She wore a white veil. There was a yellow rose on each foot. A rosary was in her hand. Bernadette was also impressed by the fact that the lady did not use the informal form of address (tu), but the polite form (vous). The humble virgin appeared to a humble girl and treated her with dignity.

Through that humble girl, Mary revitalized and continues to revitalize the faith of millions of people. People began to flock to Lourdes from other parts of France and from all over the world. In 1862 Church authorities confirmed the authenticity of the apparitions and authorized the cult of Our Lady of Lourdes for the diocese. The Feast of Our Lady of Lourdes became worldwide in 1907.
