Eighteenth Sunday of Ordinary Time, August 2, 2020

From Fr. Mark

I would like to thank all of our parishioners and guests who are willing to wear masks when attending mass. The Archbishop has insisted on this. He also suggests we view "mask wearing" as an act of charity for those around us. The evidence is strong that wearing masks, washing our hands, and keeping 6 feet apart slows the spread of the virus. I would like to thank the people who are praying each morning for the intention that we not have to close down mass again because of the spread of Covid19. We also ask God to bless our Archdiocesan leaders, as well as our local school administrators and faith formation leaders with wisdom as we prepare for the autumn semester.

When facing these big challenges during this pandemic, we can think of the story in today's gospel, when a huge crowd was hungry, and the apostles felt inadequate in their ability to feed them. Jesus tells them to trust God, and gave thanks for what food the apostles did have. Somehow, there was more than enough for the apostles to distribute to the crowd of thousands of people. We don't know exactly how this happened. For instance, we don't read in the gospel an account of massive piles of bread and fish. We just know that all ate and were satisfied, and there were 12 baskets of leftovers! Somehow, what the apostles needed was already present, as long as they looked to Jesus to guide them. May Jesus guide us in the challenges we face this week.

Starting September 1st and 3rd. There will be 2 Aquin School Masses to accommodate all children to social distance. So, Tuesday and Thursday Masses will be at 8:30am. Some grades will go to Mass on Tuesday and some will come to Mass on Thursday, that break down of classes will be listed in the bulletin at a later date.

Pastorate

Our parishes depend upon your weekly financial generosity to continue meeting the operating expenses and its ministries in this critical time of crisis when attending Mass has become more difficult. You may mail your contributions to PO Box 699, Cascade IA 52033-0699, or can drop them off in the back of St Matthias Church, or any of your local churches or at the Pastorate Office. There is a mailbox on the outside of the office you can drop them in. We also offer Electronic Funds Transmission (EFT). Call the office for more information about this option.

A new intention: When reading the following intention during Mass:

“We pray for the sick, the shut-ins, and the hospitalized of Our Pastorate, that they feel God’s love through the care and concern of others.”

We will now be listing people that need prayers due to being sick or hospitalized. If you want your name or your small child listed, please call the Pastorate Office at 563-852-3524. We will not be able to list anyone that doesn't give us their own consent.

Would you or someone you know like to become Catholic?

Or maybe you are already Catholic & would like to learn more about your faith. Instructional classes will be offered on Thursday evenings from 6:30-8:00pm beginning August 20th. The classes are very informal with lots of time for discussion. If interested or know of someone who might be, please contact the Pastorate office at 852-3524 or Deacon Joe Schockemoehl at 852-3126.

Caring For Your Marriage - In today's gospel, Jesus feeds the five-thousand. How do you (with the help of Jesus) provide for your family's hunger and thirst for spiritual nourishment?

Sacraments:

THE ENCOUNTER PRAYER

God of infinite Mercy,

you sent your Risen Son to encounter the disciples on the way to Emmaus. Grant us today a missionary spirit and send us forth to encounter our sisters and brothers:

to walk with them in friendship,

to listen to their hopes and dreams with compassion, and to proclaim your Word with courage, so that they might come to know you once again in the breaking of the Bread.

Make us all missionary disciples, and stay with us always, as we seek to share the joy of the Gospel with people of all generations, from every race, language, culture, and nation.

We ask you this with burning hearts, filled with the Holy Spirit, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, and through the loving intercession of our Blessed Mother Mary, Our Lady of Guadalupe, Star of the New Evangelization in the Americas.

Amen
