Present: Jordan Trumm, Jay Manternach, Joan Hoffmann, Julie Orris, Karen Knepper, Ralph Trumm, Jill Ehlers, Jennifer Peiffer, Jennifer Schoenherr, Ashley Kurt, Kevin Schockemoehl

Absent: Emily Trumm, Hope Saroka, Ryan Schockemoehl

Prayer led by Kevin

Minutes: Motion by Jay and second by Ralph to approve the January minutes. All ayes.

Pork Barbeque: Kevin spoke to Father Mark about his opinion. He asked only that we follow the CDC guidelines. After discussing multiple options, a motion was made by Joan with a second by Mary Beth, to not do the picnic but to ask for parishioners to make a cash contribution and to accept the proposed donor match. All ayes. The importance of a parish celebration when CDC guidelines allow, was emphasized. Julie will prepare a letter to be reviewed at the next meeting.

Buildings and Grounds:

- A new heater has been installed in the entry of the church.
- Regular light bulbs have been put back into the overhead lights in the church to avoid the flickering that was occurring.
- Kevin will ask an electrician if we need to have the wiring in the church checked.
- March 27 will be clean-up day. Adam Knepper already cleaned the hall for his service hours. (Thanks to Adam.) We will focus on outdoor clean-up.

Easter Egg Hunt: No outdoor hunt this year. Instead we will have small prepared Easter baskets for the children.

Blood Drive March 29, 3-7pm. Julie will request a bulletin insert.

Mass times: Kevin will speak with Fr. Mark about reviewing current Mass times. There is strong consensus that 4pm at Temple has been detrimental for St. Peters.

Parish Council elections: Julie will look up all the terms to be sure of which positions are up for election. Four students would be eligible to be on the ballot for youth representative. They are Ty Kelchen, Davis Manternach, Maddie Manternach and Maggie Trumm.

Next Meeting: March 9, 7pm at Fillmore.

Motion by Jay and second by Ashley to adjourn at 8:30pm. All ayes.

Respectfully submitted,
Joan Hoffmann, Secretay
