SOCIAL STUDIES: Mrs. Veazey. This assignment was last week's assignment as well. It is due this week. Make sure you complete all 3 steps. Last week, I attached a video clip introducing this assignment. Please watch it if you can. By completing this final assignment, you will be easily transitioning into the topic of the Civil War, which is the first topic you will study in 7th grade social studies.

You will choose an abolitionist after viewing short youtube video clips. An abolitionist is a person who spoke out against slavery.

STEP 1: Watch the following youtube video clips and choose one of the people to further research. (Please watch each short video clip in order to become acquainted with these very important historical characters).

Video one: Frederick Douglas - Journalist & Activist/Mini Bio/Bio 2:48

Video two: Harriet Tubman: Rescued over 300 Slaves Through Underground Railroad 2:59

Video three: Sojourner Truth - Civil Rights Activist/Mini Bio/Bio 2:29

Video four: Who is William Lloyd Garrison? American Experience PBS 3:00

Video five: Who is Angelina Grimke? American Experience PBS 1:59

STEP 2: Find out more about the person you chose from any of the following sources. You may use just one source, or all of them. It is your choice. You may want to write down notes as you are reading about the person you chose. This will help you with step 3.

Source 1: Ducksters.com (Douglass, Truth, and Tubman)

Source 2: biography.com

Source 3: history.com

Source 4: britannica.com

STEP 3: Write two paragraphs about the person you chose, using the information you found in the source/s. Follow the directions below for each paragraph. Submit it to me for grading when you are finished. You do not have to list what source/s you used.

Remember, a paragraph is 5 sentences minimum—don't just write short sentences. Also, use some transitional expressions (For example, In addition, Furthermore, However, etc.).

1st paragraph:

What was his/her childhood like? What did this person do to help end slavery? What difficulties did he/she face? Give examples of what he/she did.

2nd paragraph:

In your own words, what did you find interesting about this person? Why did you choose this person? What did you learn about abolitionists and the fight to end slavery?
