St. Oscar Romero

We are truly thankful for your support towards the works of charity, education and ministry of the Diocese!

The pandemic has been a stressful time for many: the ones receiving the benefits of these programs and the ones who financially keep them going. Therefore, on behalf of our recipient brothers and sisters...

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

Our Parish Goal is $28,800.

As of 6/17- $22,640 has been pledged!

Dear Holy Family,

A very common question in regards to my priestly vocation is how did it begin? I will say that it was NOT through a dream like my patron saints: Joseph, the father of Jesus, and Joseph, from the OT. It was NOT through thunder or an angelic revelation. It just grew in my heart like every seed: starting small, sprouting, growing, and maybe someday flourishing or giving fruit. The secret is that every vocational seed and plant needs nourishment and care. Without doubt in my mind, the examples of faith from my parents, my "abuelos," the parish community where I grew up and the list goes on... helped me to discover and accept what God wanted me to do. If it wasn't for their prayerful support, I would have been working right now in a chemistry lab doing research!! So, please with your prayers and example, support your kids and your neighbor's kids in their vocation discernment. I can tell you with a very sincere heart: I am not financially rich and never will be, but I am so joyful and thankful to be a priest, that I am ready for 25 more years or until God gives me an assignment in heaven!!!

Thank you for your prayers, messages, cards, treats, love and extra love poured upon me this week!

With love,
Fr. José
