The pandemic has been a stressful time for many: the ones receiving the benefits of these programs and the ones who financially keep them going. Therefore, on behalf of our recipient brothers and sisters...

THANK YOU FOR YOUR GENEROSITY!

Our Parish Goal is $28,800.

As of 6/29- $23,165.has been pledged!

We are $5,635 away from the goal.

Dear Holy Family,

Once again... Thank you for the wonderful and powerful prayers, messages, cards, treats, and love!

As I mentioned last weekend, while remaining pastor here at Holy Family and Holy Trinity, for an undetermined time, I will be the administrator of St. Cecilia to help Fr. Bob. That involves being responsible of the finances, while Fr. Mateus will be responsible of the pastoral ministries.

When you look at the history of every nation even in those 'periods of peace' there were some levels of unrest and violence (for example...crimes). It is sad that, the world may be highly advanced with technology and still some people find it hard to respect the lives, the property, and the dignity of others. We are so afraid of the coronavirus, when we ourselves have been the worst enemies to the human race and to our own person. If we pray for men and women to defend our country and preserve our freedom, we have to also pray that each individual defends and preserves the freedom and dignity of every child of God. May God truly bless America and make us role models of faith for the entire world!

With love,
Fr. José
