St. Vincent de Paul Ministry

In today's reading from St. Paul, the apostle reminds us that as members of a church community all have different spiritual gifts. One of them, service, was on display last week as we assisted two families with utility payments and one with a furniture voucher for our thrift store in Roseville. In all the $420 that you generously contributed made a difference. We are grateful for all your prayers, contributions to the Poor Box, and collections at Mass.

"...there are different forms of service but the same Lord. . ."
