Act of Spiritual Communion:

O my Jesus
I believe that you are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar.
I love you above all things and desire to receive you in the Eucharist.
Since I cannot receive you sacramentally at this time,
I beg you, dear Lord, come into my heart spiritually and refresh my soul.
I adore you with profound reverence;
I embrace you and unite myself wholly to you.
Never permit me to be separated from you.

March 22, 2020 - The 4th Sunday of Lent

The final revelation and moment of enlightenment comes when the man born blind encounters Jesus again. Having heard the news of his expulsion, Jesus seeks out the man born blind and reveals himself to him as the Son of Man. In this moment, the man born blind shows himself to be a man of faith and worships Jesus. Jesus replies by identifying the irony of the experience of many who encounter Jesus: Those who are blind will now see, and those who think they now see will be found to be blind. As in last week's Gospel about Jesus' encounter with the Samaritan woman, today's reading has many allusions to Baptism. The washing of the man in the pool of Siloam is a prototype for Christian Baptism. Through the man's encounter with Jesus, the man born blind is healed, his sight is restored, and his conversion to discipleship begins. The man born blind gradually comes to a greater understanding about who Jesus is and what it means to be his disciple, while the Pharisees (those who should see) are the ones who remain blind.

St. Teresa of Avila, Nada Turbe

Let nothing disturb you.
Let nothing frighten you.
All things are passing away.
God never changes.
Patient endurance obtains all things.
Whoever has God lacks nothing.
God alone suffices.

Gertrude Petzold a long time, faithful parishioner of our parish, gave us an interview. Gertie planted and maintained many of the flowers you see around our church grounds, helped as a collection money counter, active in Altar Society and Parish Choirs. Listen to her video on YouTube. You can access our Parish site through our website: www.sp-ah.org
On the opening carousel click on the "YouTube" slide which will take you to our site where you will find four videos we have uploaded.
