St. Vincent de Paul Ministry

Last week our parish's St. Vincent de Paul was able to find a household appliance for one family and also referred five other families to helping agencies near to them. Thank you for your prayers and financial support.. You make these good works possible.

Next weekend's Second Collection will support the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. Forty Million people in the US live in poverty. This collection supports programs to empower people to identify and address obstacles they face as they work to bring permanent and positive changes for their communities.

Directive from Bishop Soto: Bishop Soto suspending the public celebration of Sunday and weekday Masses for the Diocese of Sacramento California until further notice.

This is in addition to his cancelling of all "non-essential large indoor gatherings" until further notice in response to the Coronavirus outbreak. On November 13, 2020, Bishop Jamie Soto directed the pastors in parishes that are located in "purple tier" counties to offer Mass and provide to the Faithful the opportunity to attend virtually, either by live-streaming or other visual technology starting this Sunday, November 15, 2020, the Thirty-Third Sunday of Ordinary Time. From Bishop Jamie Soto: "This is a heartbreaking decision. My brother priests and many parishioners have worked very hard to provide safe, responsible, outdoor and indoor environments for the Faithful to praise God and receive the sacraments. I am confident that the protocols in place have significantly reduced the risk of infection from the coronavirus and influenza in Catholic churches throughout the Diocese."

"Unfortunately, due to lack of diligence in other social sectors, the rates of COVID-19 infection are surging to dangerous levels. Even our own efforts will not be enough to safeguard the most vulnerable members of our community. For this reason, in the "purple tier" counties, Mass, indoors, is to be offered with no more than 10 people physically present and then be provided to the Faithful through the virtual mediums available."

St. Peter-All Hallows' Parish will continue with our Live Streaming every Sunday @ 10:30am in English and 12:30pm in Spanish. Mass can be streamed at www.sp-ah.org/live via our Facebook and YouTube.

Confessions: By appointment only. Please call the Parish Office Monday – Thursday from 9am - 4pm and Fridays from 9am – 1pm.

Parish Upgrades

Our most recent project walled off and secured our trash bins addressing several longtime issues. We no longer have scavengers rifling through our garbage strewn discarded trash throughout the grounds. We've halted the illegal dumping of garbage in our trash receptacles. And perhaps most importantly we have removed an unsightly eyesore from the grounds. Many of you may have noticed the trash bins parked in front of the hall bursting with garbage as you attended Parish events.

While this project was necessary it was also very expensive and stretched our budget during these pandemic times.

We would also like to have the speakers on top of the Sanctuary space enclosed. If you could see it in your hearts, we are asking parishioners to contribute a little extra to our Development Fund in order to help pay for these worthy projects. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Reflection on Thirty-Third Sunday in Ordinary Time

In today's Gospel we hear the story of a master who gives three servants portions of his talents, money, to invest on his behalf. One hides the talent he receives and so generates no return on investment for his master. The master is furious with the servant for his lack of performance. But the story is not about money.

Today we think of the talents as charisms, special graces given by God to persons in Baptism and other sacraments. Christians develop and deepen their gifts to build, straighten and heal the Christian community. God graces us with many charisms. But the one we need now is the gift of healing.

America has elected its second Catholic president. He assumes leadership of a country with a troubled soul, bitterly divided by race, region, economic inequality, gender, and even religion. We are also divided over policies on immigration reform and climate change. Americans disagree strongly over our place in world affairs. Sadly, the divisions we see in politics can also see in our church.

Recent polls show that Catholics divided their choice for president fairly evenly. However, nearly 60% of white Catholics voted for President Trump. Latin Catholics gave him less than 30% of their vote. Many of the issues that divide us as a nation also divide us as a church. But each Sunday we come together as baptized disciples of Christ and profess our common creed. We are one, holy, catholic, and apostolic.

The president-elect said that the election was for the soul of the nation. He vowed to bring us together, to heal us. No politician is perfect. They all have shortcomings and gifts. I pray that God gives President-Biden the charism of healing in abundance, He won't bury his talent in the ground like the fearful servant of today's gospel. With God's grace, we can all help heal our nation and our church.

Act of Spiritual Communion:

O my Jesus, I believe that you are truly present in the Most Holy Sacrament of the altar. I love you above all things and desire to receive you in the Eucharist. Since I cannot receive you sacramentally at this time, I beg you, dear Lord, come into my heart spiritually and refresh my soul. I adore you with profound reverence; I embrace you and unite myself wholly to you. Never permit me to be separated from you.
