In-Door Masses Schedule:

We will be adding two more masses starting March 6th and 7th. Saturday @ 6pm in Spanish and Sunday @ 2:30pm in Hmong. We will continue with Saturdays at 4:00pm in English; Sundays at 8:00am and 10:30am in English, 12:30pm and 7:00pm in Spanish. Live-streaming of the 10:30am and 12:30pm Masses will continue for the foreseeable future on YouTube, Facebook, and through our website. Daily Mass at 8:00am Monday through Thursday will be celebrated. We can accommodate only 71 people at each mass; No one in the chapel!! Due to COVID -19, once we reach 71 people and/or mass has started, the doors will be closed and no one else will be let inside. Reservations will need to be made by Noon on Thursday every week. The same restrictions and recommendations apply from when we were open before.

Reception of Holy Communion

The reception of Holy Communion will be offered after the two Live-Streamed Masses in the parking lot by the Statue of Mary.

Mass Celebration Guide

Second Sunday of Lent - February 28, 2021

Gathering Song:

Enter the Journey

Refrain:

Enter the journey. Come to the song. By God you are chosen, by name you are called to follow the vision, carry the cross. Enter the journey of faith as the family of God

1. Enter the journey, the way may be long. Enter the journey, yet we are made strong. God's spirit will guide us, God's gifts will unfold. Enter the journey of hope!

Refrain:

2. Enter the journey, though lost and unsure. Enter the journey, God's peace will be yours. And all who are thirsting be filled with God's grace. Enter the journey of faith!

Refrain:

Offering of Gifts:

All That is Hidden

1. If you would follow me, follow where life will lead: Do not look for me among the dead, For I am hidden in pain, risen in love; There is no harvest without sowing of grain.

Refrain:

All that is hidden will be made clear. All that is dark now will be revealed. What you have heard in the dark proclaim in the light; What you hear in whispers proclaim from the housetops.

2. If you would honor me, Honor the least of these: You will not find me dressed in finery. My Word cries out to be heard; breaks through the world: My Word is on your lips and lives in your heart.

Refrain:

Communion Song:

Miracle of Grace

1. Miracle of grace, mystery of faith, Calling us to venture to the deep. Though our senses fail, your graces still prevail, And we become the love that we receive.

Refrain:

Bread of life, bread of life. Those who eat this bread shall live and never die.

Bread of life, bread of life.

Your true presence in this holy sacrifice. Bread of life.

2. Unworthy though we are, you feed the hungry heart With bread come down from heaven above.

And like a grain of wheat, we fall down at your feet, Dying here with you. Oh, let us rise!

Refrain:

3. Your faithfulness revealed in this covenant you've sealed With your very body and your blood. Come, claim your bride again with love that cannot end, For what God joins no one can divide.

Refrain:

Closing Song: Seek the Lord

Refrain:

Seek the Lord, while He may be found; call to Him while he is still near.

1. Today is the day, and now the proper hour to forsake our sinful lives and turn to the Lord.

Refrain:

2. Finding the Lord, let us cling to Him. His words, his ways lead us to life.

Refrain:

Lenten Stations of the Cross

Every Friday during Lent we will have In-door and Live-Streamed Stations of the Cross; 5:00pm in English and 7:00pm in Spanish. For the In-Door Stations of the Cross you must remain socially distanced, wearing a mask and stay in a pew.

Outside, we will have Stations of the Cross placed throughout the Parking Lot for individual prayer. They will be posted every Friday from 8:00am to 4:30pm.

For In-Door Stations of the Cross, reservations will need to be made by Thursday at noon. The same applies as for masses...we are limited to 71 people and once the Stations have started, the doors will be closed and no one else will be let inside.

Reflection

Today's Gospel celebrates the Transfiguration.

Christ came not just to make us nice people or morally upright folks, but rather to give us a share in his divine life, to become denizens of heaven, people capable of living in that new environment.

What gave the first Christians this conviction? The answer is the Resurrection—and the great anticipation of the Resurrection, which is the Transfiguration. This ordinary Jesus somehow became transformed, elevated, enhanced in his manner of being.

The first thing we notice is that his appearance became more beautiful. These somewhat grubby bodies of ours are destined for a transfigured, elevated beauty.

Secondly, in his transfigured state, Jesus transcends space and time, since he is talking with Moses and Elijah. In this world, we are caught in one moment of space and time, but in heaven, we will live in the eternal now of God's life.

Have you ever noticed that even as we appreciate all that is wonderful about this life we are never really at home? There is a permanent restlessness about human life. But a higher, richer, more beautiful and spiritually fulfilling life awaits us. We're like grubs who are waiting to be monarch butterflies.

Reflect: How does the reality of the Transfiguration and the Resurrection give you hope?

Give to the Annual Catholic Appeal. 25% comes back to our parish.

Together as Catholics, we extend our hand to those who need help. We assist them beyond dire circumstances and to begin again, refreshed and renewed. As our communities overcome the paralyzing effects of the COVID-19 pandemic, let us accompany those in physical and emotional poverty. Each of our gifts, no matter the amount, really do make a difference in someone's life. Please prayerfully consider what you can give this year.
