FACE MASK REQUIRED
REGARDLESS OF VACCINATION STATUS

Church Vandalization: Please be aware of the recent vandalizing and burning of our new vinyl and paper banners by the church front doors, side chapel doors and the parish hall. Please keep your eyes and ears open and report anything unusual to the Parish office immediately. See Facebook for pictures. Thank you!

Special Thanks to Philippe Plouchart for making and donating the vinyl banners for our church!

Mass Celebration Guide

19th Sunday in Ordinary Time - August 8, 2021

Parish News

Our church is currently open 100% of the seating capacity.

1. PLEASE BE ON TIME!! For Security Reasons: You will need to be on time - all doors must remain closed after mass has started. This applies to Adoration and other activities in the church.

2. Face Masks are still required, Regardless of Vaccination Status.

3. The two front doors will be open before mass. The outside door on the chapel side will remain closed and used for exiting only. Ushers/Greeters will need to monitor mask wearing as people enter the church.

4. We will continue to Live Stream the Sacrifice of the Mass for those who are unable to attend as we monitor the number of people who are using this service.

Diocesan News:

Gabriel Project Gathering

Saturday, August 14th, 2021 at the Pastoral Center 9:30am -2:30pm. The First Annual, The Gabriel Project Gathering will be an opportunity for parish teams to get to know others in the ministries. We will be going over the transition timeline and introducing the new Diocesan Coordinator. We would like the coordinators and their teams to attend the gatherings to socialize and share best practices. For more information, contact Andrey Arevalo at aarevalo@sc.org or 916-733-0156.

Sunday Liturgy Aid:

Gathering Song:
The Lord is My Hope

Refrain:

The Lord is my hope and my glory. The Lord is the song that I sing: So tender and loving a shepherd, so rooted in justice, a King. When shadow confuses my vision, when sorrow lays claim to my heart, God is my refuge, my rock and my shield. I will rely on the Lord.

1. Near to death, I cried "Save me!" and You heard. You are God, and you lift up the poor.

2. Kingdoms fall; nations tremble at Your power. None can stand without You at their side.

Responsorial Psalm:
Taste and See the Goodness of the Lord

Presentation of Gifts:
Ubi Caritas

Refrain:

Ubi caritas est vera, est vera Deus ibi est Deus ibi est

The love of Christ joins us together Let us rejoice in him And in our love and care for all Now love God in return

Refrain:

In true communion, let us gather May all division cease And in their place be Christ the Lord Our risen Prince of Peace

Refrain:

Communion Processional:
The Supper of the Lord.

Refrain:

Precious body, precious blood Here in bread and wine Here the Lord prepares the feast divine. Bread of love is broken now Cup of life is poured. Come share the supper of the Lord

This is the bread of God coming down from heaven giving life to us, to all the world.

Refrain:

I am the living spring of eternal life; You that drink from me shall not thirst again.

Refrain:

I am the bread of heav'n giving life to you. You that eat this bread shall never die.

Refrain:

All those who feed on me have their life in me, as I have my life in the living God.

Refrain:

Closing/Sending Forth
Lead Me Lord

Blessed are the poor in spirit Longing for their Lord For God's coming kingdom shall be theirs. Blessed are the sorrowing For they shall be consoled and the meek shall come to rule the world.

Refrain:

Lead me, Lord, lead me, Lord By the light of truth To seek and to find the narrow way. Be my way, be my truth; Be my life, my Lord and lead me, Lord, today.

Blessed are the merciful, for mercy shall be theirs and the pure in heart shall see their God. Blest are they whose hunger only holiness can fill for I say they shall be satisfied.

Reflection:

An Ordinary Husband and Father

In today's Gospel, a skeptical villager from his hometown dismisses Jesus by referring to him as nothing special, just the son of Joseph, an ordinary father. The apple doesn't fall far from the tree. But that's not how Pope Francis sees Joseph.

In his Apostolic Letter dedicating this year, the 150th anniversary of the naming of St. Joseph as the patron of the universal church, the Holy Father described Joseph as a model husband and father. As a husband Joseph accepts unconditionally Mary and the mystery of the virginal conception. As a father the Pope describes him as beloved, tender and loving, obedient to God. We have long associated Joseph with the dignity of labor. He is the patron saint of workers. Today, we also identify Joseph with those who migrate from their homelands to escape hatred and violence just as he migrated with the Holy family to escape King Herod.

Pope Francis wrote, Joseph lived a life in the shadows. He was ordinary and therefore unseen by the powers that be in his day. But the Pope also observed that, "...our Lives are woven together and sustained by ordinary people, people often overlooked." St. Joseph was ordinary. But his kind of ordinariness revealed extraordinary virtue. We should follow the Pope's advice by reflecting on St. Joseph and striving to be as ordinary as he was.
