PERSISTENCE

Today's readings are about persistence, passionate persistence. Exodus tells of a battle won despite weariness because Moses, with help from Aaron and Hur, held his hands raised. Timothy asks that same persistence of his community and us. Luke tells of a court case won by a widow, despite the dishonesty of the judge, because she will not leave him alone. The psalm reminds us that God is everywhere, guarding us from harm day and night, coming and going, now and forever. The readings are about persistence, the relentless, unwavering pursuit of what must not be lost. The readings are about God's passionate persistence in pursuing us, seeking to win our hearts.

WORLD MISSION SUNDAY

This weekend every Catholic parish in the world celebrates World Mission Sunday to focus attention on the missionary needs of the church. The focus of this year's collection is: "Baptized and Sent, The Church of Christ on Mission In The World," reminds all baptized Catholics of our responsibility to share in the missionary work of the church.
