April 11th, 2021

Divine Mercy Sunday

DIVINE MERCY HOLY HOUR

God wants us to receive His mercy and let it flow through us to others and also wants us to extend love and forgiveness to others just as He does to us. Join us for Holy Hour today, Sunday, April 11th as we gather in celebration of the abundant mercy of Jesus our Saviour at 3 p.m. at Our Lady Help of Christians Church.

DIVINE MERCY PRAYER

You expired, O Jesus, but the source of life gushed forth for souls and an ocean of mercy opened up for the whole world. O Fount of Life, unfathomable divine Mercy, envelop the whole world and empty yourself out upon us. O Blood and Water, which gushed forth from the Heart of Jesus as a fount of mercy for us, I trust in You. Amen

What a gift faith is and how personal its lessons are! John's Gospel account reveals how Thomas, as with the other disciples, seeks the reassurance of the risen Christ for what he believes and cherishes. After encountering Jesus in the locked room, the once-forsaken disciple experiences transformation and joy to realize the truth – that Jesus presents himself and calls, uniquely, to each of them to follow him. With all that we can speculate about the feelings of Thomas, it is his embrace of the close and reassuring knowledge of God's love which confirms his faith.

Fittingly, Thomas found his faith by re-joining his fellow disciples. He was active in searching his heart for the truth and for making it possible to recognize that what he believed was a conviction of his belief. Small wonder, then, that in the earliest days of the Christian community described in the Acts of the Apostles, the disciples conduct their mission with zeal, tangibly feeling the blessing of Christ's gift of grace to them and the certainty, as the psalm exhorts that "his love endures forever."

When trial threatens to overwhelm our tolerance, active belief in the divine love of God endures as the solution. Christ imbues us with graces in answer to prayers, and, as with Thomas, responds intuitively to our need to be sustained in faith
