Note to Councils and all Commission
Members: Parish Council, Finance Council, Liturgy Commission, Service Commission, and Community Commission

You will remember that prior to our Novena to St. Jude, I spoke briefly at the weekend Masses regarding the status of our Councils and Commissions.

I am now requesting that all leaders and members of the Councils and Commissions attend a joint meeting in the Community Room on Saturday, December 8th, immediately following the 4:00 PM Mass, to discuss this further.

Please mark your calendars now in order to make certain that you all will be able to attend.

Pax Christi,
Father Jim

Thanksgiving Day

Masses on Thanksgiving Day this year will be celebrated as follows:

All Souls 7:30 AM Mass
St. Jude 9:00 AM Mass

This year the Thanksgiving Day Mass at St Jude will be celebrated at 9:00 AM.

It is our custom to give out loaves of St. Joseph bread at this Mass to take home as a symbolic gesture of all of us sitting down and breaking bread together as one extended family on this Holiday.

Also, Thanksgiving Day at St. Jude has always been a time when we have a collection for the Pastor's Fund which is a fund used, in total confidential-ity, at the discretion of Father Jim for parishioners needs and necessities, and sometimes emergencies.

Many parishioners have been helped through this fund over the years and we hope that you will continue to support it. If you wish to make a contribution to the Pastor's Fund outside of the Thanksgiving Day collection, you may do so by putting it in the weekend collection basket in an envelope marked "Pastor's Fund".

Have a blessed Thanksgiving and God bless you for your support and the care that you give to those who are less fortunate.

Marigrace Clarke has been diligently working on our website

It contains copies of past bulletins, monthly calendars, photos and other information about the Liturgical seasons as they ebb and flow. It's a great medium to keep up to date with the happenings at St. Jude.

Some folks have had difficulty getting the second page of our bulletin. Perhaps this direction will help:

From the "Home" page click on the "About" menu and then click on "Bulletin". Only a small page of the bulletin displays. Click on the date to the left to get a "PDF" version of the bulletin in a new window. This will show you if it is one page or more and can be enlarged for easier reading and printed if you want.

Let her know what you think.

and now A Word from our Sponsor
Life humbles you deeply as you age.
You realize how much time you've wasted.

A big thank you to Rita Trost whom has been so kind to grow and bring some of her award-winning roses to us over the past few months. You may have noticed some of them around the Sanctuary and the Church.

Thank you so much for your energy and thoughtfulness, Rita! Don't think that it goes unnoticed, many people have been commenting about them.

God bless you. We are already looking forward to seeing the embellishments you will have for us next year.

From your St. Jude parish family.

A kind "Thank You" goes out to Gail and Gerry Hogenmiller for transporting all of the donations collected by our parish, and those collected by the student body at Holy Trinity elementary school (317+ items), for Veteran's Day. They were delighted to get so many new and thoughtful things and were especially happy about the luggage!

ATTENTION !! LAST CALL!!
For Butchers, Bakers and Candlestick Makers!!!!

Deadline for all submissions for the "Here's What's Cooking @ St. Jude" cook book is fast approaching. Sunday December 2nd. will be the last day to drop off your recipe.

As of this week we have over 75 recipes. (not including Fr Gray's beans and franks and franks and beans). Don't be left out!

We enjoyed many delicious dishes at our recent pot luck picnic. Please consider adding those. They were really, really Yummy!

You may also include your special "Go To" dinner that you make when a surprise guest (Fr Gray) appears at your door for dinner, and or your worst disaster recipe with story. (You know you have one.)

Please deposit your recipes in the "oven" on the table in the cry room.

Thank you
The Community Commission
