Stop looking for happiness
in the same place you lost it.

There will be a Poor Man's Lunch of Soup and Bread in the Community Room immediately following Stations of the Cross this Friday, April 5th, 2019.

Our ONHAWEEM COMMISSION, to which our former Community and Service Commissions have been combined in the name of St. Jude Parish, conduct drives throughout the year to assist those among the less fortunate people in our area.

On page two of this bulletin you will find a brief description of the programs that our parish assists on an ongoing basis. There are also "Wish Lists" that these agencies have supplied to us.

If you are able and would like to contribute to these collections you may do so by bringing in any of the items and placing them in the designated baskets in the Vestibule.

Your kindness and generosity toward serving these people and the agencies dedicated to helping them is greatly appreciated. God bless you folks, always.

POOR MAN'S LUNCH OF SOUP & BREAD

March 31: Fourth Sunday of Lent - Live as a New Creation

In today's Gospel, Jesus healed a blind man. That man was not only blessed to be able to see after a lifetime of blindness but He was blessed because the first face he saw belonged to Jesus Christ! The blind man saw Jesus and also saw himself reflected in Jesus' eyes. Jesus wants us to see Him as well. He wants us to see Him in ourselves and each person we meet, because we know that He is inside each of us even when it is difficult to see the evidence of that. In addition, Jesus wants to open our eyes so that we can see the light and truth of the Gospel so that we can live it every day of our lives. We can't "live as children of the light" if we don't expose the light first. Jesus, please open our eyes so that we can see You and the light of the Gospel. Amen.
