Parish Council Elections

Nominations for Parish Council

This weekend and next, you will find a coupon in the bulletin to nominate someone, or yourself, to fill one of the two the vacant positions on our Parish Council. All registered adult members of St. Jude church may participate.

These forms are for nomination purposes only. If a person receives multiple submissions, they are all considered as one nomination.

Please return the form by next weekend. Due to time constrictions, any name received after next weekend cannot be accepted. You may return it by way of the collection basket or in the basket in the Community Room by next weekend.

Next weekend is Snack Saturday and Donut Sunday, Bridge Bread and blood pressure screening weekend, so there will be time for you to turn in the form.

If you don't know the name of the person whom you wish to nominate, your parish photo directory may be helpful.

Those nominated will be personally contacted to see if they are willing to accept the nomination and a list will be prepared to begin a voting process.

This position will be a 3-year term. The requirements are: A spirit of collegiality; to be open and candid in representing our church and parishioners, and to faithfully and actively support the decisions made by the Council.

The current members of our Parish Council are Mary Avallone, Lisa Molinaro, Jim Noia, Eugene Masek, Don Bono, and Yoshi Lesinski.

Please do not nominate any of them, as they are already serving.

Multiple members from the same family may not serve simultaneous terms.
