and now A Word from our Sponsor

Mary and Joseph had to travel to another town. The wise men had to follow a star. In your own lives, do you sometimes forget that the journey is part of the fulfillment of the things that you hope for?

Attention
JESUS' LITTLE HELPERS

If you have a little time after our Sunday Mass this weekend, perhaps you can help move some of the Christmas decorations that are in the Community Room to the Church. Just go back to the Community Room after Mass and Bob Rudy will tell you what he'd like to get accomplished.

For Birthright

This is the last weekend you may donate items to Birthright for the new babies and mothers. We would like to get all the "gifts" delivered to them before Christmas.

Please drop off your unwrapped items at the Christmas tree in the Vestibule, and our "angel helpers" will do the rest.

As always, thank you so much for your participation in this wonderful and worthwhile program.

A special thank you goes to Elizabeth Thompson for all the hard work she's put into this annual effort since its inception decades ago.

Not only do we at St. Jude appreciate her and her late sister Mary Moore's long-term dedication with the Birthright Giving Tree program, they have enabled us as a parish family to touch the lives of many, many families over the years throughout the extended community.

GREAT JOB, ELIZABETH !! It doesn't just magically all fall together all on it's own each year.

We, the mothers, and the babies at Birthright are so lucky to have you with us.
God bless you!

BLOOD DRIVE NEXT SUNDAY

Time to roll up those sleeves again and get busy helping to save lives.
What a precious gift.

Many Thanks

Dear Fr. Gray and Parishioners of St. Jude

From homelessness to housing, you have helped our children and their families ... thank you! It is only through your partnership that we will be able to help more families access a bright future through the resources provided by our food pantry and/or emergency shelter services!

At Loaves and Fishes, we don't dwell on the past—we focus solely on the possibilities. Each family is unique and deserving of our singular attention. Together, with our families and you as part of our strong community, we will begin building a vision for their future—a vision that includes a stable home life, security and an understanding of real-life options, their own home.

We are preparing our families for homeownership AND bringing them hope for a better tomorrow. Your gift of food, clothing, paper products, cleaning products, diapers and wipes will help support Loaves and Fishes in this vital mission and we are extremely grateful!

Please accept our sincerest thanks and know that by partnering with Loaves and Fishes we have impacted the life of a single child, their family, seniors and veterans for the better - you are making a difference! Thank you for your wonderful donations!

With our warmest thanks,

Jacki MacIntosh, Executive Director
