PARDON OUR ENTHUSIASM...

Audio of Fr. Jim's weekend homilies continue to be posted on our parish app.

If you have yet to set up the app on your iPhone, Android, or tablet, you may do so by following these simple steps.

Send a text message to 88202. In the body of the text message type: myParishApp You will be sent a reply with the link to download it for free. Follow the directions to select the parish St. Jude or use the zip code (63114) and you will be given a list of all the catholic churches that you can choose in our area.

...or...

From your phone or tablet, go to app store at Google Play or the Apple Store to get the free download of "myParishapp". Follow the same directions to get to the St. Jude listing.

Any questions, call the rectory 314 428-2262.

Fr Jim is available for confessions each Thursday evening from 6:00 PM until 7:30 PM.

Keep Learning.
Notice kindness.
Eat ice cream.
Hope.
Count your blessings.
Laugh.
Love.

Love some more.

Phone calls about when our when our public Masses will resume have begun to increase.

Archbishop Carlson has been speaking with the CDC, the governor's office, local officials and his Council of Priests to determine exactly what the process will be.

He will then make a diocesan-wide public announcement of the policies we will undertake.
