and now A Word from our Sponsor

Rejoice that I will still be with you when you arrive at each coming stage of your journey.

LOAVES AND FISHES

Our Onhaweem Commission's ongoing collection for Loaves and Fishes needs items more than ever, especially during the shutdown, sanitization and social distancing practices. If you would like to donate, you can place items in the marked baskets in the Vestibule. Currently, they need draw-string trash bags, underwear and socks (girls, men, and women), small toiletries (lotion, toothbrushes chapstick etc), reusable silverware, nicely scented floor cleaner, and kids snacks.

myParishapp

The free download is available at the Apple store for iPhones or at Google for Android phones.

Once downloaded, open the app and go to "find a parish", find local Catholic parishes by entering the zip code, 63114. Select St. Jude and make it a favorite so it will pop up on your phone or tablet automatically.

You can listen to the audios of Fr Gray's weekly homily and it has many other very nice features. If you have any questions, please call the rectory.

Welcome Welcome

Have you been considering becoming a member of the St. Jude parish family? If so, please call Chris Aiello at the rectory to register by phone or fill out a registration form which can be found on the table in the vestibule and in front of the confessional. Just put the filled out form the offertory basket.

There has been a rumor (aka Fake News) going around that Fr Jim isn't offering Holy Communion any longer to folks in their cars after Mass. That is NOT TRUE. This service will be available every Sunday immediately following the 9:00 AM Mass until further notice. Please pass this info along to those you know who cannot attend Mass. Everyone regardless of parish affiliation is welcome.

Our remodeled website is finally up and running. We hope that you like the new look and features which will evolve over the next several weeks.
