We Need You

We are working toward meeting an urgent need of bath towels for the Loaves and Fishes families. They are out of them and have asked for our help.

and now A Word from our Sponsor

If you find a path with no obstacles it probably doesn't lead anywhere.

If you can donate new bath towels and washcloths, bring them with you when you come to Mass and put them in the basket in the vestibule marked "Loaves and Fishes". Our Ohnaweem Commission will see to it that they are delivered, post-haste.

Next weekend we will have a more detailed list of their ongoing needs, but as we have never received an "urgent" request from Loaves and Fishes, we would like to address this priority need first.

IMPORTANT

Until further notice from the archdiocese, face masks must be worn at all times while in the church.

For the time being, it is no longer permitted to remove your facemask while sitting in the pew.

It can only be removed when taking Holy Communion.

If you would like to make a monetary donation to be used for Loaves and Fishes towels, please put it in a separate envelope marked "Towels" and put it into one of the collection baskets.

Thank you for your kind generosity and time during this period of great difficulty for so many souls. Your actions speak volumes in the name of St. Jude. God bless all of you. Stay healthy.

Fr Jim continues to offer Holy Communion to the folks in their cars after Mass. This service will be available every Sunday immediately following the 9:00 AM Mass until further notice. Please pass this info along to those you know who cannot attend Mass. Everyone regardless of parish affiliation is welcome.

Many of you know our parishioner, Vicki Hunn, who has been on home hospice for several months.

A few weeks ago, she and her dog, Chelsea, decided to move to Springfield, MO, to be closer to her family, but now she is in a nursing home.

She is not permitted to have visitors with so many restrictions at nursing facilities due to Covid-19 and being away from her familiar surroundings, dog, parish, and friends, Vicki is feeling very isolated.

If you would like to remember her with a card or note of good cheer, you will bring her a delightful and unexpected joy by letting her know that she remains with us. Not only will the cards brighten her room ... they'll give her bragging rights too.

Ps Even if you are new to our parish, or just visiting, if you feel called upon to brighten another persons' light, drop Vicki a card or note, introduce yourself and say Hello.

Special Announcement

Some folks have asked if they could get a personal copy of our Breaking Bread missalettes which has the weekend readings.

After much consideration, it has been decided that we will offer some of our shelved missalettes for those who would like to have one.

These books expire the 1st week of Advent, when we will have our new annual supply which will not be available in the pews until we are "all clear" from the virus.

You may pick up one of the books without a hard cover from the table nearest the door in the community room. Please do not take any of the hard burgundy covers. Remember to wear your face mask while in the community room.

If you decide to pick up a copy for yourself, (one copy per family), please sign your name on the sheet provided. Also, please write your name on the front of the book so it can be easily seen.

Remember to sanitize your hands after picking up a copy of your book

If any of these books are left behind after Mass, they will not be returned to you, they will be discarded for health and safety precautions.

Welcome Trinitarians!!
Pull up a pew, make yourself comfortable. We're delighted to have you with us.

Don't forget that we have a new holy water receptacle in the back corner of the church near the confessional. Bottles are available, some already filled, and empty bottles that you may fill at will.

Please feel free to pick up one or stop to refill a container you already have for yourself or for someone you know who is homebound or is currently unable to attend Mass.
