2021 National Catholic Women's Conference March 12-14, 2021

Archbishop Rozanski is supporting a partnership with an organization named Virtual Catholic Conference (VCC) for the 2021 conference. VCC is an organization with experience, expertise, and resources in providing Catholic Conferences and they can provide an effective and inspirational alternative to our normal (i.e. pre-COVID) conferences. Our conference will be hosted as part of the National Catholic Women's Conference (NCWC), a virtual event being hosted the weekend of March 12th-14th. This conference is free. Register at <https://go.virtualcatholicconference.com/NCWC2021>.

New study confirms that cats can't spread Covid-19. But would if given the option.

Community News

Dear Newer Family Members: Peace.

Many of you have been here for several months and others belong to a growing number of regular visitors.

Over the next few months, we will finally be able to get to recognize one another as family members. First and foremost, it will be nice for all of us be able to match the faces to the names.

We are so delighted to have you here with us!

Various common and necessary elements help define what a parish is.

I am aware that many of you enjoyed participating in a lively parish life that was reflected in your faith's celebrations, with your creativity, helpfulness, and engagement.

I hope that you will take the opportunity to offer your talents and service again.

Pax Christi,
Fr. Jim

Dear Visitors: Welcome.

If you are one of our masked, therefore unknown visitors, we warmly welcome you to our Parish.

We are starting to get a little enthusiastic about the potential for a brighter year ahead of us as we begin moving toward a better "normal."

We have many new parishioners, and we hope you will choose to become one of them. Believing that you enjoy and feel comfortable at St. Jude, it would be grand if you decide to stay.

For anyone considering becoming a member of our parish family, the process is simple. Registration forms are on the table inside the church's front doors and on the table in front of the confessional.

Just pick one up, fill it out and drop it in the collection basket. It's that easy.

Or, if you like, you may call Chris Aiello at the Rectory (324 428-2262). She will take your registration over the phone.

Again, welcome to St. Jude. Thank you for visiting us.

Peace,
Fr Jim

God Bless You This Lent ...

I ask all of our parishioners, new to consider some possibilities and check all that are of interest to you.. If you would, drop the coupon in the collection basket.
