And now A Word from our Sponsor

The greatest battles are won when you pray.

It is very refreshing to see more and more people coming back to Mass.

As a reminder, family members who live in the same household are not required to socially distance at Mass. You are encouraged to sit together which might create a little more room for other members and visitors.

For example, if you are here in a family group of 3 or 4 and you sit together, one or two others can sit in your same pew.

It will be very helpful when you are the first person to enter a pew from the center aisle, to kindly move over to the marked seat closest to the side windows. That will make it much easier for people to see any available seating. People get reluctant having no alternative other than to sit next to Father in the Sanctuary during Mass. He might put them to work. Probably doing something in Latin.

Psst...

There's something printed on the back of this page.

When we go into another lockdown just train all the Amazon drivers to give the vaccine. Entire population immunized by Saturday. Wednesday if you've got Prime.

 Time for

What immediately follows Lent and Holy Week? It's the Annual Catholic Appeal!!! No resting back on our heels around this place. No sir-ee.

As you may or may not remember, last year's ACA could be described as chaotic at best. ACA materials arrived on time, although our box also included the entire materials, lists, cards, mailings, cd's, etc., belonging to a distant and very large parish. Ah, Covid.

All diocesan office employees were working from their homes. Even the diocese main switchboard only had a recording with no way to leave any messages, nor to get any questions answered. That went on for months. When we could finally get hold of someone working from their "home" office, and we needed to be switched to another department, it was not unusual to have someone say, "Gosh, we've been working from home for so long, I'm not sure if that person even works here anymore". Ah, Covid.

We began our ACA campaign considerably tardy. Sent out our contribution cards with a letter and return envelope, etc. Unbeknownst to us, the diocese solicited everyone on our behalf as well. Twice the postage. There were many phone calls from confused parishioners, and we were confused as well. Very challenging questions to answer. Ah, Covid.

The materials sent to us this year included a list of parishioners who were "pre-solicited." It's not a very long list even though they were informed about all the new parishioners. Not a hopeful sign.. (Covid?)

We want to apologize in advance as it is likely you could receive duplicate requests. Ours will be going out in a week or so.

If you get the mail from us and also a solicitation from the Archdiocese, sending it directly to the diocese will be quickest. If you've already donated, just toss out any redundant materials. Again, if this happens to you, we sincerely apologize.

This said, we are delighted to tell you that with all the ACA chaos last year, not only did we meet our goal, we surpassed our goal!!! Wow! We have not met our goal in many, many years.

You are such magnificent parishioners with generous, sincere, and very kind hearts. You should be very proud of yourselves and of each other.

God bless all of you. And our visitors too!
