And now A Word from our Sponsor

The truth is like a lion; you don't have to defend it.
Let it loose; it will defend itself.

It is very refreshing to see more and more people returning to Mass.

As a reminder, family members who live in the same household are not required to socially distance at Mass. You are encouraged to sit together which might create a little more room for other members and visitors.

For example, if you are here in a family group of 3 or 4 and you sit together, one or two others can sit in your same pew.

It will be very helpful when you are the first person to enter a pew from the center aisle, to kindly move over to the marked seat closest to the side windows. That will make it much easier for people to see any available seating. People get reluctant having no alternative other than to sit next to Father in the Sanctuary during Mass. He might put them to work. Probably involving something in Latin.

ACA UPDATE

Clarification was sent to all parishes this week from the Archdiocese regarding mailing out the pledge cards for this year's Annual Catholic Appeal.

They have mailed cards to those who have given to the ACA in the last five years and to people new to their database.

If you haven't received a pledge card from the Archdiocese and would like to make a donation, there will be a coupon in the bulletin next weekend. As we still have copies of your pledge cards, you can fill out the coupon and drop it in the collection basket. We will mail a copy to you.

One thing no one ever talks about when it comes to being an adult, is how much time we debate keeping a cardboard box because it's you know, a really good box.
