

Pastor's Column

And the Winner is . . .

New Avenue B Walkway into the Church Parking Lot

The new Avenue B Walkway into the Church Parking Lot is a hit with parishioners, school families and neighbors. The “Name the New Walkway” Contest has generated a lot of interest. As of this writing (Sept 12), more than 60 names have been submitted from a broad range of people, including a 90-year-old and a 3rd grader. The proposed names run the gamut from religious to personal to clever. Below is a sample of the names received. We couldn't print them all:

“Shortcut to the Rectory, Heaven's Gate, Stairway to Heaven, God's Pathway to Holiness, Angel Alley, Lee Lane, Jaguar Walkway, Trinity Trail, Gateway to Jesus, Yellow Brick Road, St. Francis' Footpath, Rectory Lane, Jaguar Crossing, Noah's Walk, Just a closer walk on B, Fr. T's Passage, Appian Way, God's Access to Eternity, St. Vincent's Passage, The Eye of the Needle, The Golden Way to God, The Way, Avenue Beeline, The Right Path, Pathway to Prayer, Emmaus Walkway, Pathway to Peace, Prompt Succor Gate, Path to Heaven, The 444, Therese's Little Way, Peaceful Walkway, A Closer Walk with Thee, Pathway to Heaven, St. Francis Express, Running Late Lane, GOA Walk, Breeze Walk, Pathway to Faith, Walk our way to I AM, Angel's Walkway, Late Gate, Who Dat Gate.”

The Parish Council has the task of picking the winning name, which will be announced at the weekend masses of September 21-22. The winner gets a gift certificate to the restaurant of choice. Thanks for entering the contest. May the best name win!

God bless,
Fr. Joe