The American Heritage Girls' will have their Annual Spaghetti Supper Fundraiser next Saturday, February 22. The free will donation meal and silent auction desserts will be part of the evening. The girls will also have displays on projects and activities they are currently working on for you to view. Come share the fun! (Marnie Zuniga, Susan Masur)

Make plans to attend the Women's ACTS Retreat, February 20 – 23, sponsored by St. Anthony Parish, Columbus. Theme of the retreat is, "Do you not know that the Spirit of God dwells in you?" 2 Corinthians 3:16. The retreat occurs at the Cathedral Oaks Retreat Center outside of Weimar. It is an opportunity for spiritual renewal and reflection. What a great way to start the new year. See Karen Tucker or Jackie May for details. Registration forms can be found in the back of the Church. (Jackie May)

With the continuous need for religious vocations, especially the priesthood, we extend this invitation of having the Vocation Chalice in your home for a week, as is the practice of the Fatima Statue. Display the Chalice in a visible place, usually on the table where meals are shared. This images Christ at the Last Supper. Come help the Lord of the harvest to create greater awareness for priestly vocations. Contact Deacon Roger or Deacon Alvin to sign up for a week. This invitation goes out to St. Mary's and Sacred Heart. (Deacon Roger)

The family of Virginia Goertz would like to express our gratitude for all the cards and prayers. Special thanks to Deacon Roger for the graveside funeral service, Bernard Probst for assistance with the cemetery plot and the St. Ann's ladies for the help with lunch. Thank you to G&C printing for the memorial prayer cards. We appreciate all the support given to us.

The family of Robert Snow would like to thank Father Dariusz and Deacon Muehr for the beautiful service for Robert. Thank you to the best music makers and singers in Rockne, you provided a very personal touch to the service. Thanks to the ladies of St. Ann's for helping with food and providing desserts. Also thank you so much to G & C Printing for the great job on the memory cards. Many thanks to all who prepared food, sent cards and said prayers. We have a great community that comes together in trying times.

We wish a special happy birthday to Georgia Funderburk on the occasion of her 86th birthday, which she celebrates on February 21. May God bless you and keep you for many more years. (Fr. Dariusz)
