Exact details are still being worked out. Additional information will be posted in the bulletin and on our website as it becomes available. Religion class for St. Mary's will be a little different this year. In this uncertain time, we are forced to think outside our comfort zone. Religion class will be for all members of the family and will take place after the 10:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday. The first class will be September 13. Everyone will remain in their seats in the Church with their families. The program will begin immediately after Mass has ended. The program will explain The Creed. If any discussion is needed please do so after class outside. Any question please call Sharon Foerster at 512-921-0751. (Sharon Foerster)
