RCIA classes begin online this Sunday, from 9:30 – 10:30 a.m. RCIA stands for Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. It is the normal process by which non-Catholics can seek entry into the Catholic faith. But classes are open to anyone, parishioners and non-parishioners alike, interested in learning more about the Church. This week's class covers Introduction to RCIA and will be facilitated by Rodney Kadura. Classes will be online only this year via Google Meet. To join, visit <https://meet.google.com/qtn-trbc-otj> this Sunday at 9:30 a.m. You can also find this meeting link on our website. (Rodney Kadura)

Religion class for St. Mary's will be a little different this year. In this uncertain time, we are forced to think outside our comfort zone. Religion class will be for all members of the family and will take place after the 10:00 a.m. Mass on Sunday. The first class will be September 13. Everyone will remain in their seats in the Church with their families. The program will begin immediately after Mass has ended. The program will explain The Creed. If any discussion is needed please do so after class outside. Any question please call Sharon Foerster at 512-921-0751. (Sharon Foerster)

As announced at Mass last Sunday, St. Mary's is planning a garage sale to help raise money for our parish. The date for this event has not yet been decided but hopefully will be in October or November and we are now beginning to accept donations of household items of any kind. If anyone needs to schedule a pickup, please call either Tish Evans at 512-629-5975 or Crystal Hammons at 512-988-9179. We can either pick items up or meet anyone at the Religious Ed building for drop off. In order to have enough time to process and price all items received we will not be able to accept donations the day of the sale. If you have any questions, please call us or contact Crystal through Facebook. Thank you in advance for all your help. (Tish Evans)

There will be a free will donation bake sale on Sunday, September 27, following Mass, sponsored by the St. Ann's ladies. Please plan to pick up something sweet after Mass that day. All proceeds will go to the Church. (Fran Herauf)
